The documents in this DVD are located in the family files of the Genealogy & Local History Department of the Pascagoula branch of the Jackson-George Regional Library. What you will find is a virtual grab bag of genealogies, obituaries, newspaper articles, and various other documents. Most were contributed by family researchers who were willing to share their findings with the library, as well as other information found by genealogy staff or volunteers of the Jackson County Historical and Genealogical Society. Information from these files should be cited as "Pascagoula Public Library Genealogy & Local History Department Family Files."

This information is provided as is. Some materials may not be dated or may not have the name of the contributor. In most cases, we would have no way to determine those details. Library staff and Jackson County Historical and Genealogical Society members cannot in any way certify that the information is correct. We suggest verifying the information with your own research.

If you would like to add your family research to the files, please bring the information to the Department and we will be happy to include it in the file. Or you could scan and send them by email to: pggen2@jgrls.org, or pggen2@jgrls.org. If you prefer to mail copies, please send to Pascagoula Public Library, Genealogy & Local History Department, 3214 Pascagoula Street, Pascagoula, MS 39567.

Also, if you would like to join the Society, a membership form is included on this DVD. Interesting and informative meetings are held at 6:00 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month at the Pascagoula library's meeting room.

If you find this DVD to be damaged, we will give you a replacement copy. If you are not satisfied with this product, we will refund your money.

Thank you for support. All proceeds go to continuing the digitizing of original documents, records and photographs in the collection of the Pascagoula Public Library Local Genealogy and History Department.

RYAN

Isaac Ryan who made his will in Jasper County in 1851 had a land claim in Jackson County as early as 1812, voted there in 1813, was a patron of a school in that county in 1818, and was listed in the census in that county as late as 1840. The tax rolls showed that he had nine slaves.

His last will and testament filed in Jasper County in 1851 gave the only outline of his family found anywhere:

Will of Isaac Ryan, 1851

Executor, son George W. Ryan. Legatees: To George W. Ryan, 6 slaves and 480 acres of land in Jackson County. To Felix Ryan, son, two slaves To Ann Jones, daughter, one slave

To Charlotte Bilboe, daughter, one slave
To Charlotte Bilboe, daughter, one slave
To Isaac Ryan, grandson, one slave
To John Ryan, grandson, one slave
To Elizabeth Ryan, granddaughter, daughter of John Ryan dec'd one slave
To Jacob Ryan, grandson, minor heir of Jacob Ryan, dec'd, late of Jackson Co., $200.00
To George W. Ryan, son, all residue of estate.

Dated Sept. 8, 1851

Census of Jasper County, 1850

Ryan, George W., born 1813 in Miss. Ryan, Clementine, born 1820 in Ga. Ryan, Amanda, born 1841 in Miss. Ryan, Milton, A., born 1842 in Miss. Ryan, Margaret, born 1844 in Miss. Ryan, Olivia Ellen, born 1846 in Miss. Ryan, Malvinia Virginia, born 1849 in Miss. Ryan, Isaac, born 1769 in Ga.

Jacob Ryan, the grandson named in the will, enlisted in Co. A, 24th Miss. Infantry and served throughout the Civil War. His son, Isaac Peeples Ryan, has a complete roster of his father's company. The veteran lived to be ninety-four and is buried in Forrest Co., and has a Confederate marker over his grave. His Bible records his marriage and his children:

PABLO (PAUL) COX AND CAROLINE (CARRIE) RYAN AND RELATED FAMILIES

Submitted by: Mrs. Alice D. Forsyth for Mr. Marion P. Cox

Mr. Marion P. Cox has in his possession many certified copies of documents translated from the French and Spanish concerning the genealogy of one NICHOLAS LADNER (CALLED CHRISTIANE.) The documents are confusing for anumber of reasons: There are at least three men called Nicholas Christiane Ladner who married women with similar sounding given and surnames. There was no usage of "Jr." and "Sr."; rather, the occasional use of 'Cadet' which could mean, according to who used the term, "younger", "elder" or "older". Switching from French to Spanish and back to French also distorted the spelling of names. Too, in the late 1600's and early 1700's, due to extreme distances which must be traveled to reach a Church, and the scarcity of Priests, etc., marriages were veiled (Pronounced as legitimate), children were recognized as legitimate, and sometimes adults and children alike were baptized, ALL on the same day. This rendered the use of dates impossible for identification purposes.

After diligent research of the actual documents, the following genealogy has been drawn for Mr. Cox's direct line ancestry. In each case, the name and parentage, or date of birth and baptism, is supported by an official record. Roman numerals denote the first and succeeding generations, other information is lettered. Children are listed only if proof has been obtained.

- 1. NICOLAS LADNER (CALLED CHRISTIANE), born 1699, native of the Canton of Lucerne, married to MARIE BARBE COUNAL, a European. He died in France. Children:
 - a. Jean Baptiste (sometimes also called Christiane) Ladner, baptized on September 12, 1724.
- II. b. MATURIN CHRISTIANE LADNER, who was married to MARIE BERDA PICARD (ANA BERDA) (MARIE CATHERINE ELBERDA). Known children:
 - (a) Jacques Ladner, baptized February 18, 1751;
 - (b) Angelique Berda Ladner, born February 14, 1753;
 - (c) Louis Ladner, born April 1, 1755, baptized May 6, 1755.
- III. ANGELIQUE BERDA LADNER, born February 14, 1753 (above), was married to JEAN BAPTISTE FAYARD. Children:
 - a. Rosalia Fayard, who married Joseph Ladner. They had a daughter, Marie Josephine Ladner who married Pierre Reyenne (Ryan), son of Jacques Ryan. Rosalia and Joseph had two children: (1) Marie Eulalie, born December 22, 1834, baptized March 10, 1835, St. Louis Cathedral; and (2) Eugenie, born March 24, 1837, baptized July 3, 1837 in St. Louis Cathedral;
- IV. b. MARIANA FAYARD, born 1729, who married FRANCISCO BOURGEOIS, born 1733. Proof of only one child, a daughter:

and Pelagie Moran (Morin) has found its way home. Genealogist Gloria Smith Moran of Pass Christian has donated the document — written in French with its English translation — to the Old Brick House. This Biloxi landmark was originally the home of Juan Baptiste and Pelagie Carco and Mrs. Moran felt it was fitting for this material to be displayed in the home.

The document reveals that Juan Baptiste, the son of Nicholas and Catherine Ladner Carco, was given a dispensation by the Catholic Church to marry Pelagie, because they were second cousins. His maternal grandfather Mathurin Christian Pelagie was the daughter of Canadian Joseph Moran and Louise Christian Ladner.

The marriage record of this couple, who have many descendants and connections on the coast, is found in Marriage Book 1 of the Cathedral of the immaculate Conception in Mobile, Ala., Page 92-a.

Description:

This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1870 United States Federal Census, the Ninth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age at last birthday, sex, color; birthplace, occupation, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1870 Federal Census.

Description:

This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1850 United States Federal Census, the Seventh Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age as of the census day, sex, color; birthplace, occupation of males over age fifteen, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1850 Federal Census.

many Ladner descendants, without the use of a computer, that my head and my written records cannot distinguish between individuals with the same names. There have been so many intermarriages between descendants, that the lines just seem to blend into one and leaves me at a point that I must either make my best educated guess or else offer no further information. I have come too far in documenting each individual that I list to now guess at anything.

This family and his brother's family that follows immediately are good examples of my dilemma. However, I take solace in the fact that descendants of these families in the North Biloxi area of Harrison and Jackson Counties have records that will extend these line to completion. Remember, I am taking you into the early 1900s and these persons are grandfathers of now living people. I just hope that these living descendants will offer to the MCHGS the necessary information to complete any line that I leave unfinished.

- 2CB7AA. JOHN LADNER appears with the family in the 1860 HARCO census, age 2 or born 1858. He does not appear with the family in the 1870 JAXCO census. I have no further information on this person.

DEDICATION

I dedicate this book to the people of Ocean Springs, Ms. A city with a rich romantic past, proud people, and beauty. May the people who live there appreciate and enjoy this special place which holds a special place in my heart.

Darlene Krohn

1. Jerome Ryan born 26 July 1793, Ocean Springs, Jackson Co., MS, Bap. 11 Nov 1793, Occ. Farmer, married (1) Marie Euphrosine LaFountaine. born 8 Nov 1802, Biloxi, Harrison Co., MS, Bap. 13 Jun 1803, (daughter of Louis August LaFontaine and Catherine Bourgeois) died c 1846, married (2) 30 Sep 1854, in Harrison County, Ms, Mary Shehin, born c 1818, Ireland, died 2 May 1883, OCEAN SPRINGS, MS. Jerome Ryan was the son of Jean Ryan and Marie Gargaret. Jerome's paternal grandparents were Daniel Ryan and Margurite Butler. His maternal grandparents were Michel Gargaret and Martha Paquet. It is unknown when Jerome Ryan died. It is probably before 1880. The last information about Jerome Ryan is he is 76 years old on the 1870 Census of Jackson County, Mississippi. He is not listed on the 1880 Census of the same county. It is assumed that he died between 1870 and 1880. He is probably buried in the Bellande Cemetery. Marie: Marie Euphosine LaFontaine Ryan died around 1846. This is assumed because of the partition of land inherited by Euphosine LaFontaine Ryan from her mother Catherine Bourgeois LaFontaine (the Widow LaFontaine). See Appendix A.

Children by Marie Euphrosine LaFountaine:

- 2. i Jerome Alfred Ryan born 1825.
- 3. ii John Augustus Ryan Sr. born 1826.
- 4. iii Celestine Ryan born 1828.
- 5. iv Jacque (John) Ryan born c 1834.
 - v Victor Ryan born 1838, Ocean Springs, Jackson Co., MS. See message for Victor Ryan's brother Joseph Ryan. Only Victor not Joseph appears on the deed of partition (See Appendix B). This deed listed only 9 children. The date on the deed was after Joseph Ryan's death.
- 6. vi Pierre Ryan born 1839.
 - vii Joseph Ryan born 1840, Ocean Springs, Jackson Co., MS, died 15 Sep 1878. Age 38 when died according to Catholic Diocese of Biloxi by Lepre pg 285. Joseph Ryan and Victor Ryan (the fifth son of Jerome Ryan) maybe the same person. Since both have the same birth year, it can be assumed possibly that they were only one person. On the 1850 Jackson County, Mississippi census only Victor Ryan appears age 12. Joseph is not listed. So that makes it appear that this was Victor Joseph Ryan or Joseph Victor Ryan.

About the book:

I started researching information on Jerome Ryan about five years ago. After much encouragement from several important people, this information has finally been put into book form.

I would like to thank Dave Kuhl (for his computer expertise and encouragement to use the computer for this enormous project), Brother Jerome Lepre (for his initial encouragement to do this project), Ray L. Bellande (for all his encouragement that I could do this project), and most of all my mother-in-law, Katherine Pylate Krohn. Katherine is the great-great-granddaughter of Jerome Ryan. The reason I became interested in the Ryan family in the first place.

I hope that the people of Ocean Springs will enjoy this look into some of the many families that evolved from Jerome Ryan. The many early families that are interwined with the Jerome Ryan family are just to name a few: Catchot, Kendall, Westbrook, Beaugez, Seymour, Dick, Benezue, and Bellman.

I hope that this book helps someone to look back at their roots for many generations to come.

Nathaniel Ladner (Carlos Ladner) born May 4, 1828. Married Sarah Emmaline Havens, Mar. 4, 1853. Sarah was born Apr. 24, 1839, and died June 1, 1930. They made their home at Van Cleave, MS.. I understand after Jeremiah Ladner was killed by Jay Halker's, Nathaniel went in pursuit of them. It was very bad weather and while crossing Wolf River, in the sleet and rain he froze in the saddle. When he reached home they had to cut him from the saddle. The exposure was to much for him, he developed pneumonia and died. He is buried in the little Cemetery at Van Cleave, near his old home place. He died Feb. 26, 1865. Their children: Lenard L. Ladner b. July 28, 1857 d. May 3, 1940 Louise Ladner b. Dec. 5, 1860 m. egister of St. Charles Borromeo Church, Destrehan, Louisiana Book B page 84 In this year of seventeen hundred and fifty-four and the twenty-fourth of July, I the Apostolic Capuchin Missionary Priest and Cure of the Parish of St. Charles, Province of Louisiana, baptized with the ordinary ceremonies of the Church Jean Baptiste born on the eleventh of July of this same year, of Michel Gargare and of Marthe Paquet, his father and mother. The godfather being Jean Baptiste Guerine and the godmother was Charlotte Labbe Paquet.

Michel Gargare was born on August 26, 1756.

St. Louis Cathedral Baptism Book III page 62

On September 7, 1756, I, the undersigned have baptized with the ordinary ceremonies of the Church, Michel, born on August 26, 1756, of the legitimate marriage of Michel Dargaret and Martha Paquier. The godparents are Michel Paquier and Catherine Bauderot. In faith of which I have signed the day and year as above.

Marie Anne Gargare was born on December 20, 1758.

St. Louis Cathedral, New Orleans Baptism Book 3 page 104

On December 20, 1758, I, a Capuchin apostolic missionary priest, have baptized with the ordinary ceremonies of the church, Marie Anne. born this same day of the legitimate marriage of Michel Gararet and Martha Paquet, the father and mother. The godparents are Simon Berlinger and Marie Barbe ??????, wife of Mr. Simon, who declared that they could not write to sign but have made their ordinary marks. In faith of which I have signed the day and year above. /s/Father Prosper

Marie Anne Gargare married Jean Ryan on August 11, 1786 in Mobile,.

Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception Marriage Records Book #1 page 55.

On August 11, 1786, I, the undersigned, have administered the nuptial blessing to Jean Ryan, son of the deceased Daniel Ryan and Marguerite Botler (Botter) originally from the City of Savannah, capital of Georgia in America, and living in this parish, on one part, and of Marie Gargare, minor daughter of the deceased Michel Gargare and Martha Pasque his wife, present and consenting to the said marriage. The aforesaid Marie Gargare, originally of New Orleans, Capital of Louisiana, and living in this parish of Mobile, is of this dependent province of Spain. The said marriage has been administered by me, the undersigned, according to the rites and formalities of our Holy Mother the Church, Catholic, Apostolic and Roman, Nothing to my knowledge is before me as an impediment to the aforesaid. The three banns of marriage have been seen as useless. We are the witnesses to the marriage, to the age and to the liberty of parties, because of the attachment of the wife to the Catholic religion. Joseph Bossage, Coronat Selhos, Joseph Colomb, Etinne Boy and others who signed.

married to 1GJ9. JOHN WARNE CUEVAS (QUAVE), the family moved from Biloxi, Mississippi to Abita Springs, St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana, and the details of this marriage and their family will soon follow.

In discussing this first marriage of Victoria Gollott, which was omitted in the article by Mrs. Adkinson, she told me that she had seen the marriage entry, the name of Victoria was so badly misspelled, that she felt that this was not the same person. However, I have located the following record which verifies her identity as well as the identity of her child and her marriage. This record is found in the 26th Judicial Court for St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana in the Partition Suit of Cora Quave, et al for the sale and division of Lands from the Estate of Victoria Gollott Quave, at the Courthouse, Covington, Louisiana, stating, in part,

"That said Victoria Gallot died intestate on Nov. 5th, 1889, leaving eight (8) children, one being Victoria Miller, wife of P. V. Mallett, who was the issue of her first marriage with John Miller. That the children of her second marriage with John W. Quave were the six (6) first named petitioners, and Amelia Quave, deceased, who was the wife of John Grantham.

That after the death of said Victoria Miller in June
1895, her interest in said land became vested by right of inheritance in her half brothers and sisters, she having died intestate and without issue." (emphasis added)

1GJ5C. PETER VINCENT MALLETTE did remarry and this record is:

"St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana, Marriage Book 3 at Page 78
PETER V. MALLETT married 1896 KATIE DAVIS"

1000000

They appear in the 1900 St. Tammany Parish Census, Ward 3, Abita Springs, June 13, 1900, Page 45A, H/H 209-213 and again in the 1910 St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana Census, Ward 3, Abita Springs, just 2 doors away from John W. Que-Vas.

"Peter V. Mallett, 55, married 13 years, born in Mississippi Kate, wife, 35, married 13 years, 2 children, 1 living Louise, dau., 8, born in Louisiana"

Of course, the 1920 U. S. Census records have not yet been released and I have no further information on the family of 1GJ5C. PETER VINCENT MALLETTE.

1GJ5D. LOUISA ELIZABETH "LIZZIE" MALLETTE was born June 2, 1858 and baptised

October 11, 1859 (BVM-Nativity Bk. 2 p 15 A 85). Her marriage is: "JAXCO MB 1 p 188 "HAMPTON NOBLES married 6/27/1877 LIZZIE MALLEY"

I understand that descendants of the Nobles family have record on this

1GJ5. LOUISE QUAVE married VINCENT PETER MALLETTE

Before beginning this lineage, I want to thank Mrs. Mary Louise Adkinson for her kind assistance in regard to the second marriage of ICJ5. LOUISE QUAVE after the death of VINCENT PETER MALLETTE, who died sometime before 1870. The details of this second marriage will follow the children of this first marriage.

In the 1870 JAXCO census, 1GJ5. LOUISE QUAVE MALLETTE is living in $\rm H/H$ 324-358, a widow, with the following children and next door to her mother, 1GJ. MARIE LOUISE LADNER QUAVE. The Mallette and Gill Family records that have previously been made public are cited in the following listings.

1GJ5A. ALEXANDER "ALEX" MALLETTE appears in the 1870 JAXCO census, age 15 born 1855.

JAXCO MB 1 p 194 "ALEXANDER MALLEY married 6/21/1877 LEVINAH GILL"

The Gill family records state that she was Melvina "Lavinah" Gill, the daughter of Henry Gill and Martha Louise Whitehead. They had eight children. 1GJ5B. ANNETTE MALLETTE appears in the 1870 JAXCO census, age 14 born 1856.

Family relatives say that she was known as "AMELIA MALLETTE" and was married to JIM NOBLES. I have no further information.

1GJ5C. PETER VINCENT MALLETTE appears in the 1870 JAXCO census, age 12 born 1858, and was twice married. His first marriage is as follows:

JAXCO MB 1 p 176 "PETER VINCENT MALLEY married 6/6/1877 MARY VICTORIA MILLER"

There is an interesting story connected with this marriage, and if I don't set the story forth, in part, at this juncture, I am afraid that some of the details may be lost to family history. Her baptism record is:

"MARIE VICTORINE MILLER, born March 12, 1862, baptised at Back Bay, Biloxi on May 8, 1862, daughter of John Miller and Victoria DOLLAR (GOLLOTT)." (emphasis added)

(BVM-Nativity Bk. 3 p 6 A 26)

The marriage of John Miller and Victoria Gollott is as follows: HARCO MB 4 p 84 "JONATHAN MILLER married 5/29/1861 VICTORIA GOLLARD"

I have no record of his parents, but the parents of Victoria Gollott were Joseph Gallott and Coralie Ladner, the daughter of Joseph Ladner and Rosalie Fayard, as reported in the MCHGS article Another Gulf Coast Heritage - The Grelots by Mary Louise Adkinson. Victoria Gollott was second

ALEXANDER PIERRE "PERRY" LADNER was twice baptised. OLGH BB 2 p 5

A 40 states that he was named ALEXANDER, born July 19, 1880 and baptised February 27, 1882. OLGH BB 2 p 16 A 118 states that he was rebaptised ALEXANDER PIERRE, born July 18, 1880 baptised February 28, 1884. PERRY LADNER died January 9, 1953.

Aurelie and Manus Ladner records state that he was married to JANE DAVIS and that they had five children. Mr. Slade states that JANE DAVIS was born February 19, 1881 and does not state a date of death for her.

1GI8F. HELENA VERELIA "ELLA" LADNER was also baptised twice. OLGH BB 2 p 5

A 41 states that she was named HELENA, born February 1882, baptised February 27, 1882. OLGH BB 2 p 16 A 119 states that she was rebaptised HELENA VERELIA, born February 12, 1882 and baptised February 28, 1884. ELLA LADNER died December 28, 1918.

Aurelie and Manus Ladner records state that she married ANNO DEDEAUX and that they had six children. ANNO DEDEAUX was the son of 1GD4B. Zenon Dedeaux and 1GE1G. Laura Ladner (see pps. 330, 331 and 340).

ary 28, 1884 (OLGH BB 2 p 16 A 117), and died September 30, 1913.

Aurelie and Manus Ladner records state that she was married to JOE DE DEAUX and that they had two children. JOE DEDEAUX was the son of 1GD4B.

Zenon Dedeaux and 1GE1G. Laura Ladner (see pps. 330,331 and 340).

1GI8H. CARY LADNER. I have no baptism record for this person. Mr. Slade says that he was born c 1885 and died May 6, 1962.

Aurelie and Manus Ladner records state that he married DEAN BELL (BEALL) and that they had five children. Mr. Slade states that DEAN BELL was born February 5, 1881 and died September 16, 1924.

1GI8I. ?CAVERT "HUGH" LADNER was born August 10, 1887 and baptised January 22, 1888 (OLGH BB 2 p 40 A 2).

Aurelie and Manus Ladner records state that he married MOLLIE McLEMORE and that they had three children.

1GI8J. "CLARENCE" ALPHONSE LADNER was born December 26, 1888 and baptised

December 22, 1892 (ANNC BB 1 p 100 A 2) and died March 22, 1946.

Aurelie and Manus Ladner records state that he 1st married TEACIA LEE and they had 8 or 9 children; Mr. Slade states that she was born May 17, 1894 and died January 16, 1924; 2nd married AZOLINE CASTLOW and they had no

Aimee Nicaise (St. Paul-Pass Christian MB A p 4 A 25). This marriage is also recorded, HARCO MB 5 p 109, as URSIN LADNIER and HARRIET MORAN were married December 27, 1860".(emphasis added)

NALERY LADNER is listed in the 1850 HARCO census as age 9 years, born 1841. He was first married to 1GH2A. CLOTILDE MARIE FORETICH, daughter of John Foretich and 1GH2. Eugenie Cuevas, on February 1, 1862 (HARCO MB 4 page 95 which states Valery Ladner and Clotile Foretich married February 1, 1862). There was one child born of this marriage. It appears that Clotilde died prior to 1865 since their child is found in the 1870 HARCO census in the household of her grandfather, 1GK. Ursin Ladner, and in 1870 Valery is remarried. This second marriage appears of record as follows:

"VALRY LADNER, son of Ursin Ladner and Louise Dubuisson, with dispensation of 2° consanguinity, married at Jordan River, December 27, 1865 ROSELIA NIOLET, daughter of Andre Niolet and Antoinette Ladner. Witnesses: J. Bas. Ladner and Oscar Peterson." (emphasis added)

(OLG MB 1 p 52 A 174)

It is reported that Valery Ladner married a third time to a Celena Nicaise and that no children were born of this marriage. However, HANCO MB B records the marriage of VALERY LADNER and Mrs. ODENA NICAISE on November 25, 1887, and I assume this is the marriage.

- LAURENCE LADNER appears in the 1850 HARCO census in the household of 1GK. Ursin Ladner as age 7 years or born in 1843. I have no further information on this person.
- DESIREE LADNER appears in the 1850 HARCO census in the household of 1GK.

 Ursin Ladner, her father, as age 5 years or born in 1845. She married Dec. 18, 1871, to 1GA9F. RAME LADNER, son of 1GG1. Julien Ladner and 1GA9. Clementine Ladner (HARCO MB 6 p 96).
- MARY DEZIDA LADNER appears in the 1850 HARCO census in the household of 1GK. Ursin Ladner, her father, age 3 years, or born 1847. She was married to ANDRE NIOLET, widower of Antoinette Ladner.

"ANDRE NIOLET, son of Dom. Niolet and Jeanne Fiterre married January 22, 1868 to MARIE LADNER, daughter of Ursin Ladner and Poupon Ladner. Witnesses: Ovile Morin and Mrs. Leonise Martin".

(OLG MB 1 p 60 A 191)

- 1GJ11. CLEMENTINE QUAVE, reported by Mrs. Ladnier, was a twin to Celestine

 Quave and was born Nov. 26, 1849. The 1850 JAXCO census records list her as CLEMENTINE COUEVE, in the household of Pierre Coueve, age 10/12 years, born 1849. She is reported to have married JOHN

 NOBLE, but I have never found a record of this marriage.
- 1GJ12. ISABELLA QUAVE, reported by Mrs. Ladnier, was born Jan. 24, 1851. The

 1860 JAXCO census records list her "ZABELL COUEVE", age 5 years in the household of Mary Louise Coueve who is listed as living alone in this 1860 census at Ocean Springs, Miss. Pierre Baptiste
 "Parik" Coueve is not listed in this 1860 JAXCO census or subsequent census record along the Gulf Coast for any succeeding year.

 JAXCO MB 1 p 212 lists the marriage of THOMAS GARLOTT to ISABELLA QUAVE. In this record, they were married by H. C. Havens, a member of the Jackson County, Mississippi Board of Supervisors; and the marriage bond was signed by Jules Garlott.

1GJ. MARY LOUISE LADNER, the wife of Pierre Baptiste "Parik" Cuevas, died April 18, 1888 (BVM-Biloxi, Book 2 page 153 A 1115). This family is reported by Cyril Caine in his book, Four Centuries on the Pascagoula.

PIERRE BAPTISTE "PARIK" CUEVAS is reported to have died in St. Tammany Parish, La. in 1889 and the reasons for his absence from the Gulf Coast area after 1850 and removal to St. Tammany, La. will be reported after the completion of the fifth generation descendants of his legitimate family.

1GK. URSIN LADNER married LOUISE "POUPONNE" DUBUISSON

- 1GK1. ALFRED LADNER, born Nov. 25, 1837 was baptised Jan. 19, 1840 (SLC BB 17 p 122 A 372). In the 1850 HARCO census he is age 13 years, born 1837. He first married CELESTINE SAUCIER, daughter of Jacques Saucier and Adele Saucier, on march 19, 1865 (HARCO MB 4 p 129) (St. Paul-Pass Christian MB A p 5 A 31). He second married ARTEMISE LIZANA, April 7, 1896 (HARCO MB 10 p 441) which states ALFRED LADNER married ARTHEMESE LIZANA. Children were born of the first marriage, but no children were born of the second marriage.
- 1GK2. URSIN LADNER, JR., born July 11, 1839, baptised Jan. 19, 1840 (SLC BB 17 p 122 A 373), listed in the 1850 HARCO census, 11 years old, or born 1839. He was married Dec. 27, 1860 to 1BB4F. HENRIETTA

 "OPHELIA" MORIN, the daughter of Lucien Morin and Henriette

- 1GK7. ROSE "ROSA" LADNER appears in the 1850 HARCO census in the household of Ursin Ladner and Louise Dubuisson as age 6 months or born 1849.

 HARCO MB 6 p 175 lists the marriage of THOMAS STRAHAN on January 24, 1873 to ROSE LADNER.
- 1GK8. PHILOMENE LADNER appears in the 1860 HARCO census in the household of Ursin Ladner and Louise Dubuisson as age 10 or born 1850. She was married on August 26, 1880 to CASIMIR "COCO" LADNER, and this is found in HARCO MB 7 at page 178 and as follows:

"CASIMIR LADNER, son of Julien Ladner and Clementine Ladner, with dispensation of 2° on side of bride and 3° on side of the young man, married August 26, 1880 PHILOMENE LADNER, daughter of Ursin Ladner and Louise Dubuisson. Witnesses: Sylvain Dubuisson and Delphine Ladner."

(OLG MB 1 p 138 A 399) (He is 1GA9J. CASIMIR "COCO" LADNER)

I am sure that this marriage and the degree of kinship certainly must must have given Father Leduc, the Priest performing the ceremony, a lot of difficulty as noted in this record, and I will let you figure the real degree of kinship to your own satisfaction. Please do consider the following.

Julien Ladner the father of the groom is 1GG1. Julien "Jules" Ladner, the son of 1GG. Julien Ladner and Helene Cuevas. The groom's mother is 1GA9. Clementine Ladner, the daughter of 1GA. Gilbert Ladner and Louise Desiree "Pouponne" Morin. Jules Ladner and Clementine Ladner were first cousins.

Ursin Ladner, the father of the bride, is our 1GK. Ursin Ladner who was a brother to 1GG. Julien Ladner and 1GA. Gilbert Ladner!

1HA. BERNARD VALENTIN BOURGEOIS married ISABELLE FAVRE

The vast majority of the information that follows on this line and the Maximilien Bourgeois and Marthe Ladner line comes from the very excellent research of Jerry and Debbie Heitzmann of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, Debbie is a descendant of the Maximilien Bourgeois line. Their research was done through Church, Civil and private records of the Bourgeois family as well as personal interviews with old family members. The results of the private records and the personal interview records are confirmed, for the most part, by Church and Civil records. I am deeply indebted to Jerry and Debbie for their kind sharing so that this publication can be as complete as possible in all respects. I did check many Church records to confirm their information and found it correct. I will give direct quotations on these lines from the information given to me.

Fact 1: Seckelmeister

Children of Jann Ladner and Sibilla Gansner are:

- i. Luzi⁶ Ladner, born 1740 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland; died 1743.
- 86 ii. Luzi Ladner, born 1744 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland; died 1790.
- 87 iii. Eva Ladner, born 1753 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland; died 1810. She married Chlass Jost 1773 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland; born 17 Oct 1749 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland.

Generation No. 6

60. Christian⁶ Ladner (Luzi⁵, Hans⁴, Luzi³, Hans², Luzius "Luzi"¹) was born 16 Mar 1754 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland, and died 1810 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland. He married Elsbeth Jost 25 Feb 1776 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland, daughter of Martin Jost and Catharina Fluetsch. She was born 10 Oct 1755 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland, and died 1816 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland.

Children of Christian Ladner and Elsbeth Jost are:

 Luzi⁷ Ladner, born 25 Oct 1776 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland; died 1845. He married Elsbeth Reutner 1826 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland; born 1776 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland; died 1834

68. Weibel Jann⁶ Ladner (Lienhert⁵, Jann⁴, Johannes³, Hans², Luzius "Luziu") was born 10 Nov 1731 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland, and died 25 Mar 1790 in Seewis im Prattigau, Graubenden, Switzerland. He married Anna Jost 07 Jun 1757 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland. She was born 16 Feb 1737/38 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland, and died 1800 in Seewis im Prattigau, Graubenden, Switzerland.

Children of Weibel Ladner and Anna Jost are:

- Nikolaus⁷ Ladner, born 1759 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland; died 1831 in Seewis im Prattigau, Graubenden, Switzerland.
- + 115 ii. Johannes Ladner, born 08 Oct 1761 in Seewis im Prattigau, Graubenden, Switzerland; died 13 May 1837 in Glueckstal, Russia.
 - Hans Ladner, born 29 Dec 1770 in Seewis im Prattigau, Graubenden, Switzerland; died 1771 in Seewis im Prattigau, Graubenden, Switzerland.
 - iv. Hans Ladner, born 11 Apr 1772 in Seewis im Prattigau, Graubenden, Switzerland; died 10 Mar 1773 in Seewis im Prattigau, Graubenden, Switzerland.
- 69. Anna⁶ Ladner (Lienhert⁵, Jann⁴, Johannes³, Hans², Luzius "Luzi"¹) was born 1736 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland, and died 1804. She married (1) Peter Baertsch. She married (2) Christian Baertsch 1767 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland. He was born 1745 in Seewis, Graubuenden, Switzerland.

Child of Anna Ladner and Christian Baertsch is:

- + 118 i. Peter⁷ Baertsch, born 1776 in Seewis im Prattigau, Graubenden, Switzerland; died 27 Nov 1830 in Seewis im Prattigau, Graubenden, Switzerland.

History of the surname LADNER

(This research was carried out in Geneva and Saint Antonien during the summer 1993 by Martin LADNER, born December 13th, 1938.)

Topics to be included: The history of the LADNER coats-of-arms; the migratory routes of the mountain people called Walsers; an examination of the history of the LADNER family in Switzerland and other countries.

One can choose from a variety of options in the design of a study like this one. Many famous names are already well documented in the history books, and some famous families have produced their own histories. But lesser known people such as the Ladners must do their own research or wait until someone in their family becomes famous. While waiting, it will be interesting to speculate on the origin of our name.

My goal is to start the ball rolling, but it's continued progress will ultimately depend on others. That is why any opinion, recollection, family tree, or disagreements are welcome and might help to reveal the past and increase our knowledge of this surname. Two families (in Zams and in Lorüns) have already produced their respective family trees and have shared their information with me. They would be extremely interested to learn more. That is why I will borrow from these lines and satisfy my own desire by broadening my meager knowledge and beliefs about our family.

Significance of the term WALSER

Before getting started, it might be useful to provide some discussion on the term "WALSER" which will be mentioned frequently in this article. One of the world's great migrations took place around 500 B.C. when German tribes entered into the celtic-roman country of Helvétia, and into Rhétia in the North-East of Switzerland - areas which had previously occupied by the Romans. Between the 8th and 9th centuries, members of these tribes reached for the first time into the Upper Valais of Switzerland and gradually displaced the indigenous population. Between the 12th and 13th centuries some families or groups of families set out on new journeys and crossed the mountains to the south, north and east in order to settle other alpine valleys, (sparsely inhabited or uninhabited), to find new land on which to build new lives. WALSER is the name given to these emigrants from the Upper Rhone Valley, with their unique dialect, who eventually established themselves in the Grisons, in the Oberland of St Gallen, in the Principality of Liechtenstein, and in the Austrian Vorarlberg. Some of them journeyed through the southern valleys to settle first in the Italian Piedmont and Bosco-Gurin within the canton of Tessin. (Prof Paul Zinsli)

Where do the Ladner come from?

J. Ulrich Meng, a researcher of the history of Walser, wrote to me on August 22, 1963:

"The Ladners are immigrant descendants of the Walsers who settled at Sturvis and St.Antonien. The name is derived from the name of a trade or activity. Just as Wagner (cartwright) is a shortened form of Wagenbauer (manufacturer of carts) and (splitters of slats) were called Lattenspalter, the same principle applies to the surname Ladner. This method of assigning names has produced others such as Schindler, Salzgeber etc."

The librarian of the Ferdinandeum Museum of the Country of the Tyrol wrote a letter to me on September 3, 1963: ... "according to J. L.Kappel, Ladners' sometimes wrote their name as Lodner. A Lodner was a maker of cloth (taken from an article in Tiroler Anzeiger of July 16, 1917). According to Schatz and other researchers, Ladner signifies a grocer, and in northern Germany Ladnerin is a shop owner. According to other theories and explanations, someone named Ladner would have had the profession of loader (laden = to load); that is say loaders of livestock; or Ladner could have been a name from the court in the Austrian Tyrol. These theories deserve to be studied in more detail but at the present time I do not find them convincing.

Based on the groundbreaking book of professor Paul Zinsli "Walser Volkstum", I am leaning toward the conclusion that the surname LADNER does not represent the name of a trade, but rather the name of a place. Professor Zinsli, a linguist and a historian, regards language as the most telling part of a Walser's identity. When analyzing a word like "schwer (heavy)" it is pronounced "schwâr" in the highest parts of the Upper Germanspeaking Valais, but in the lower part it is "schweer". All areas where one finds the early Ladners in Vorarlberg and in the Grisons belong étimologically to the lower part of the Valais, which is between Visp and the border of France and has been influenced by the French language. We indicated earlier than the alpine people came from the north and, little by little, introduced the German language into all of Upper Valais. But: "The first immigrants in the Valley of the Rhone brought with them the characteristics of their distinctive dialect and provided the foundation of linguistics in the area of the Upper Valais" (P. Zinsli)

After some research I found an old map of the Rhone Valley which includes, above the villages of Steg and Hohtenn, a hamlet with the name of LADEN. A visit to this place (May 19, 1991) gave me some impressions but no proof of a connection with the LADNER family. I therefore turned to an expert, professor Paul Zinsli. In his kind response of May 24, 1991 he writes: "Professor Conrad Huber, along with others, connects the name of Ladner with Ladener which refers to the owner of a grocery. But other conclusions of the novelist C. Huber appear to be without proof and your conclusion regarding the small Valaisan hamlet has more merit. It would be necessary to study all the sources in the areas inhabited by Ladner, but while waiting for proof of your thesis, a Valaisan origin appears to me enough evidence for at least some of the Ladners". (teacher Paul Zinsli)

Another indicator could be the fact that the hamlet of Laden is not far from the entrance to the Lotschental Valley. The Lotschers are an old family in my home village; St Antonien. My great-uncle was called Kaspar Ladner-Lotscher - and its origin on the north side of the valley in the Upper Valais has been established. Furthermore,old maps such as those reproduced in the chronicle of Saas-Fairy, written in 1545 and 1682 include the localities of Stalden, Raron or Lalden = Staldn, Rarn, Laldn. It therefore seems possible to me that far away from the village, when meeting foreigners, the emigrants from Laden were called Ladner. Family names Ladener, Latner, and Lotner are probably only alternative spellings and do not conflict with my assumption of the family origin.

Laden, along with the other hamlets like Gâsch, Brâgi and Jaz, belonged to the commune of Niedergestelen. Niedergestelen originated with an inn and a warehouse established by merchants from Savoy and sold by the counts of Savoy near the end of the 13th Century (together with the entire valley of Lotschental) to the lords of La Tour. On August 8,1375, after years of disputes and wars against the bishop of Sion, the villages were returned to Savoy. Thus the lords of La Tour were defeated and their castle was destroyed in 1379. The bishop continued to fight for his properties until finally losing them in 1426, much to the benefit of the residents of the Upper Valais. Niedergestelen and the village of Laden were set up thereafter with Lotschen in a single estate. I do not yet know the role played in this dramatic and historic event by the village of Laden, which later became a hamlet and today is known as an "alp".

Separate from the political considerations, there were economic reasons that prompted an emigration of one or more families from Laden without leaving a written record. The current study of the migrations identifies some of the factors pushing and pulling them away from their alpine village: "Separately, the wars in Upper Valais; the plague; a great drought; natural disasters; overpopulation; and, as in some other areas of Europe, a wave of colonization." (Susanne Christina Jost)

Professor Dr. Werner Meyer adds: "To prevent the creation of autonomous estates by the recalcitrant lesser nobility, the great lords, in particular the barons von Vaz, hit upon the idea of recruiting and settling foreign mountain dwellers, like the Walsers, granting them self-determination, and giving them letters of protection to shield them from harassment by the small local landlords". A significant factor appears to have been the fact that the barons von Vaz, large feudal lords in the Grisons, were related to the barons von Raron in the Lotschental area of the Upper Valais.

The subsequent history of the village of Laden is probably not important because on the date of March 23, 1444 there is a record that mentions Jâckl Ladner, as well as a Peter and his son Hânslin Ladner at the time of the purchase of the mountain pastures of Hittenliten and Walmendingen in Kleines Walsertal (the Small Walser Valley in Austria). It is not very likely that the emigrants could have maintained significant contact with their villages of origin in the Upper Valais. The reverend father Dr. Karl Fritz writes in "The old and the new fatherland of Walser" that in the 15th century Ladners were already well represented in the Vorarlberg of Austria. That opens the possibility of two interpretations which are not necessarily contradictory. It could mean the immigration of several families together or from successive immigrations, but all from the same village in the Upper Valais. That could have occurred either in the 14th or at the end of the 13th century. Ladners could have come from Laden but not necessarily at the same time or from the same family. The second assumption would be the arrival of only one family and successive dispersion in the alpine areas of Vorarlberg and the Grisons. Unfortunately, that time coincides with the creation of family names in general and it would be very helpful if we could study all the documents containing the name of Laden or Ladner. (Prof Zinsli says that the Walser names are names of colonists)

As for St Antonien, my village of origin, that appears to be difficult. According to Prof. Erwin Poeschel: "This high Grisons valley was inhabited before the arrival of Walser, which occurred at the beginning of the 14th century, probably coming from Klosters. One finds proof in the many Romanche names found there". It is known that the Walsers at Davos accepted their letter of understanding in 1289, before colonizing nearby areas such as Langwies and Klosters. But whether that is also the case for St Antonien, and the Ladner family in particular, remains to be proven. For the time being, the earliest known date for the mention of Ladner is the renovation of the church and the raising of the new tower in 1493. Prof. Poeschel comments: "The original structure probably went up in the middle of 14th century. The woodwork in the choir stalls show simple veneers and carries the inscription "14 - Hans Durnes, Vetter Turns, Domen Kuonrat Lattner, Walter Latner -93" It probably recreates an earlier inscription because characters of the writing belong to 17th Century (Prof. E. Poeschel). This text has always been in the church but nowadays more has been added at the same place. Durnes and Turns certainly are the same family name, perhaps even Turm or Turn (of the Tower?). Vetter probably means Peter and Lattner and Latner equates to Ladner. People were not too precise with their spelling at that time!

Although the parish registers prior to 1687 are missing (and apparently lost), I found among my direct ancestors several with the first name of Konrad. One of them, born in 1696, married a young lady named Greta Durnes. Another born in 1779, is recorded as married and separated from a Barbara Durnes. In an account of the avalanche of March 26, 1668 one mentions a Christian Turnes along with Valtin and Konrad Ladner. The family Durnes is extinct in St.Antonien and there only remains a very few Ladners.

Joseph Bermann in his account of a trip on June 27,1845, speaking of the village of Galtur in the valley of Paznaun in the Tyrol, says not only that the people speak the Walser language but also that, based on their traditions these Walser would have come from Tannberg. He writes: "The Judge in Galtur was a certain Christian Rooms in 1550". Thurnes or Rooms have always lived in the valley. In the parochial register of St.Gallenkirch in Montafon one finds Sebastian Durnes and for the year 1658:Jackl Durnes". In short, the relations between these two families are probably not due to random chance, and point to a common Walser origin, in particular since nowadays Ladners live in Montafon (Vorarlberg), Paznaun (the Tyrol) and in the Grisons.

Prof. Dr. Karl Ilg writes in "Walser in Vorarlberg": "Anno 1320 (according to Zinsli it was1319) Walser from Galtur are mentioned for the first time. Since they juridically formed a group with Walser of Montafon they certainly came from the same community".

My ancestors lived near the farmland known as 'Buschen' at the foot of St Antonierioch which leads to Gargellen and St Gallenkirch. Buschen was quoted in the chronicle of the castle of Ortenstein (1726-1831) and mentioned by Paster Holger Finze-Michaelsen in his "History of the avalanches of St.Antonien". The farm is described as an old woman, one of the oldest houses of the valléy". Not far from the farm, which does not exist nowadays, is the place called Gafien (Cavîa) Dorf (meaning small village). In the letter of partition of 1666, Gafien was still an independent commune. In spite of the reformation - the reformer, a chaplain of the name of Heinrich Spreiter, came from Gaschurn in Austria - and the slow political separation of St Antonien, and its inclusion in the League of the Ten Jurisdictions, then in the autonomous Republic of the Three Leagues, and as part of Canton Grisons since 1803 in Switzerland, the connection with Austria was never entirely broken and this was perhaps because of the common Valaisan origin of most of the population. One can thus assume that the 15th century Ladner are mentioned in Switzerland for the first time about 1493.

In Vorarlberg, the earliest is the contract of March 23, 1444 mentioned above. Jackl Ladner is again mentioned as parish builder in 1451. About 1460 his widow Margreth Ladner born Syfrid, in Mittelberg, makes a donation. Magdalena Ladner from Mittelberg made in a donation 1452 and a Peter Ladner from Lech (meaning Lotschental) is mentioned in 1460 with the title of Bodmen. Ladner are also recorded in 1480 in Thuringerberg (K.Fritz).

Certain Ladner families have been able to establish a family tree dating back to the 16th century. From St Antonien, as already noted, few traces remain. Inside the village church two decorations are painted in the form of coats-of-arms. The inscription reads: H. L. Hans Ladner the younger, and D. L. Men Ladner 1596. Apart from St.Antonien the book of the Grisons surnames indicate: Flasch: 1531 Luzi Ladner, 1571 Hans Ladner, Castels: 1578 Jory Ladner, Schiers: 1592 Ulrich Ladner, Maienfeld: 1599 Hans Ladner.

On the Austrian side of the border, one learns for the first time in the 16th century of a noble's coat-of-arms, although the librarian of the museum of the Country of the Tyrol wrote to me in 1963: "Unfortunately our very large collection does not contain any Ladner coat-of-arms in order to be able to affirm with certainty which Ladner of the Tyrol had this coat-of-arms. But in 1961 a Ladner family of Zurich forwarded to me a copy of 'The Old Man Siebmacher'; volume 4, plate 115 which is almost identical with plate 114 used by the Wappen Archive W Appel to Sulz (Siebmacher 1657). A corresponding description was given to me by the Ladner family of Zams. This text is not included in this translation because it was already translated except for the bottom of the page where there was a mention of the Landecker book and of a Hans Ladner from Telfs 1524. He could have been the first carrier of the coat-of-arms since the year corresponds to the date on the coat-of-arms.

When, these coats-of-arms are included later for example in ' General Armorial ' by J.B. Rietstap, the complete name is always Ladner of Ladenburg. I do not know yet if there exists also a Ladenburg family or if the name was invented. There is a well-known town of Ladenburg close to Mannheim, Germany. The majority of the noble families had names attached to a place and Walser noblity such as the family of Sprecher de Berneck is not an exception. But if the word is removed; (burg=manor) there would remain simply ' Hans Ladner von Laden'. An important point of distinction would be to specify if Ladner really came from the valley of Tannheim rather than from the area of Tannberg which is typically Walser.

For the 17th century the Grisons book of surnames indicates for St Antonien: 1623 Hans and Thoman Ladner, 1623: Andri, Hans, Lutzi, Johannes and Enderli Ladner, 1623 Wâlty Ladner; Seewis: 1649 Hans Ladner 1656 Thoma Ladner (from St Antonien) Kublis: 1666 Anna Ladnerin; Igis: 1680 Hans Ladtner, Rudolf Ladtner; Zizers ref. 1685 Rudolf Ladner; Sufers: 1695 Margreth Ladner. In a contract for mountain pasture at Ascharina in 1686 a Peter Ladner is mentioned as a commune official.

In his book 'The battle for the release of Prâttigau" in 1622, Paster D.A.Ludwig speaks of a certain Johann Simon (according to others he was a Ladner) who was defending against four Spanish riders and although seriously wounded he succeeded in killing a rider and in putting the others to flight. The commander of the Austro-Spanish troops, Colonel Balderon, apparently said after the battle: "These Grisons mountain dwellers are not men but devils. Oh, if I only had 5,000 of them!".

In Vancouver, Canada a family lives nowadays to which the ancestors William and Thomas Ladner arrived in the middle of the last century from England, and across the United States to settle there and thrived by transporting and trading salmon. Their origin is the town of Penzance in Cornwall and the earliest record of the name goes back to the reign of Charles Ist (1625-1649). Although without proof for the moment, one can wonder whether the first Ladner in Penzance was a mercenary who had arrived with a foreign army, a mountain dweller who could have been shipwrecked?

For the 18th Century we find Ladners in some other Grison communes like Grüsch 1704; Tschiertschen 1711; Thusis 1721; Flims 1724 (from Igis); Zizers, catholic 1753 (from Tyrol); Jenins 1756 (from Luzein); Sagens, catholic,1763 (from Tyrol); Luzein 1764; Jenaz 1767, Elsa Ladner; Malans 1781 (from Igis); Klosters 1786, and 1799 Elisabeth Ladner (from Seewis).

The Ladner family from Loruns (Vorarlberg) and the Ladner family in Zams (the Tyrol) like the author have family trees which go back to the 18th century. It should be noted that the family Ladner from Loruns has a coat-of-arms from the 16th Century but they are completely different from both coats-of-arms found in the "Siebmacher".

Below is an 18th Century comment related in the book mentioned above 'The history of the avalanches of St Antonien' by Pasteur Holger Finze-Michaelsen (1988).

On March 11,1756 the farm of 'Buschen' was destroyed for the first time. The avalanche killed Conrad Ladner (my direct ancestor) his wife Margreth Turnes and their son Hans (age 36): Hardly 20 years later, on February 24,1776, another avalanche devastated the farm that had been rebuilt by Christian Ladner, his sister Madlena, and his three sons: Andreas, Conrad and Christian. "Only the father escaped death. He was obliged to spend the night in the pile of mixed hay and snow, wearing only a shirt and a pair of pants". The chronicle adds that Christian Ladner, being deeply in debt and lacking his helpers; decided not to build a new building. The farm, or what remained of it, was sold to Peter Engel. But Peter Engel was not too lucky because on December 22, 1797 a third avalanche fell on 'Buschen' and carried his new barn a little further away. At the place known as 'Bortli', Thomas Ladner (age 26 years) was killed with the eleven cows he was tending. Arnold Buchli in his 'Mythological collection of Grisons' (1938) quotes Kaspar Engel who tells a story which although somewhat dramatized, described the tragic night of Christian Ladner.

In the 9th Century the Ladner family increased and multiplied. As indicated earlier, Edward and his son William Ladner left England in 1847 to settle at Mineral Point in the State of Wisconsin. In 1851, Thomas, the younger brother and four sisters followed. The father died suddenly in the same year. The following year (1852) William and Thomas set out towards the west on their way to California, and later in 1858 they traveled by boat from San Francisco to British Columbia. The gradual rise of this family of Canadian pioneers towards glory is described by Leon J. Ladner in his book 'The Ladners of Ladner - From covered wagon to the Welfare State'. The small town of Ladner south of Vancouver was previously called Ladner's Landing and nowadays belongs to the town of Delta. The Encyclopedia of Canada (1948) curiously indicates for Ladner a Norwegian origin.

Another location of the name of Ladner is in the USA in the state of South Dakota.

In the Grisons the very new Cantonal School of the new Swiss canton mentions for first half of the year the winter 1804-1805 among the 58 pupils a Peter Ladner from Seewis. The book of the patronyms indicates for 1808 a Joseph Ladner (received middle-class, from Vorarlberg). It owes its beginning to a family member Ladner from Loruns born in 1787 in Flirsch, Arlberg and married in 1824 with a young lady living in the town of Chur.

On August 13, 1839 Ambrosius Ladner contributed to rescue the church of St Antonien from fire. At the central library of the Swiss National Museum in Zurich, first lieutenant Ladner is mentioned for a course of repetition of the Plant company. The new German necrologist (1824-56) indicates in 1846 a commander Ladner. Several Ladners have established themselves in Vienna, Austria. That directory now contains 18 persons with the name Ladner. A famous representative was Oscar Leopold Josef Ladner but little is known about his family. He was born in 1873 in Dresden and lived as an industrialist and investor in Vienna. His son Gerhard emigrated in 1938 to Canada. By 1945 he was a captain in the Canadian army and later a professor of History in several American universities. There is nowadays a family of Ladner in Texas, in Mississippi and in Pennsylvania, and it would be interesting to know their respective origins.

In April, 1994 my 1993 research was sent to some people (17 in all) by mail. Mr. Thomas E. Ladner of Vancouver, Canada, answered with information interesting to pursue: A list of Ladner mentioned in Penzance in England and the assumption that the first Ladner would have come to Penzance in the 17th Century as a Huguenot refugee from Brittany. I sent a letter to Randall Ladnier who, meanwhile, left Louisiana for Florida without leaving his address. He had mentioned in a letter to Gilbert Ladner of France that he had a book written in 1988 with the title 'The Ladner Odyssey' about his family originating in St Antonien and coming to America in 1719. The French branch goes back to Sebastien Ladner born on January 2, 1820.

Mr. James W. Ladner of Medina, Minnesota in the USA answered on behalf of his cousin Charles. I had met Charles Ladner there are a few years earlier but had never met his cousin. James Ladner sent me some photocopies of newspapers and a family tree going back to Nicholas Ladner born in 1824 in Brixen (the Tyrol) and died in the USA.

From a meeting with Mr. Ignaz Bellwald in St.Antonien in October 1993 at the time of the commemoration of the church 1493-1993: "Without question the Ladners came from the Lotschental". Mr. Bellwald devotes himself to the history of Lotschental (valley of Lotschen) and answered my research in December with a report that makes two very interesting points:

It provides some other records of Ladners in Vorarlberg. In 1466, Hans Ladner sold the farm inherited from his grandfather to the knight Marquart von Ems. In 1439, Henni Ladtner from Tunserberg is mentioned. It also supports my thesis for the origin of Ladner in the village of Laden with the mention of a Latin text about a difficult division of property in Upper Valais in which a Jacobus Ladener is found among the witnesses (the text is currently in translation). The date of the division is 1365 and it reads: "Jacobus Ladener de Lyech". Lyech is the ancient name for Lotschental. That could finally be a proof of a Valais origin of the family. One can even imagine that this Jacobus or his son emigrated to the Vorarlberg alone or with the Turm (Durnes) family. The young son could be another Jackl (Jacob) mentioned in 1444 in Austria (same first name as his grandfather) at the time of the purchase of a mountain pasture which was to be from the grandfather since his son and his grandson are named in the same contract.

"On the winding trails of the Walser mountain people" (Article of the review N°4 Ticket of September 1993, Swiss Youth Hostels).

A long time ago, approximately 1000 years, a group of shepherds and nomads in search of new means of existence, left the Bernese Oberland to move south, beyond the mountains, and settled on the sunny slopes of Valais. They stopped in the valley of Goms, elevation 1500 m, and set out to clear the rough ground according to their needs. This is how was born the group of people who today still live the highlands of Europe and that group is known as the "Walsers".

Prior to that, no one had succeeded is establishing themselves at such a high altitude, but the hardy people of Walsers learned to handle all the difficulties they encountered. To follow their tracks on the long trail which today carries their name, "The Great Walser Way", is a fabulous adventure which makes it possible to rediscover a chapter of old Swiss history which has been largely forgotten. In order to survive in these arid mountains, Walsers had to make use of their ingenuity and skill. They cleared the land, cultivated terraces and, during the short months of summer, carried their herds to feed at heights near the extreme limit of the vegetation. They invented the "Suonen", a novel system of wooden canals used to collect torrents of water from the mountain and to irrigate their crops and pastures, as well as the "Hutten", a kind of braided backpack which enabled them to transport their products on the steep slopes. They were also the first to build the "Heinzen", a wooden scaffolding on which they dried their hay. Their houses, small and modest, were made from stones and wood. During the summer, they camped on the pastures at high altitude and, when winter came, they descended again to the hamlet where they had stored what would be needed to feed people and animals during the harsh winter. To protect their provisions against the rats and other intruders, Walsers had another brilliant idea: between the ground and the beams supporting the floor, they placed large stones punts which prevented the rodents from entering into the the dwellings and their attics. And in case a mouse would be able to infiltrate the house, in spite of these defenses, they placed their bread reserves on suspended racks which could not be reached.

Thus Walsers were the first "colonists" to make the Alps their fatherland. It was also their custom to leave the entire farm to only one descendant and they refused to split up their lands, so that the other family members were obliged to emigrate. In their earliest migrations, Walsers spread south into the valleys of the Italian Alps, then in the French part of the area of the Monte Rosa, before moving more to the north, reaching the high valleys of the Grisons, and finally the Vorarlberg. Although living in strict self-sufficiency, Walsers also engaged in some commercial trading, selling their surplus cattle and their dairy products in order to buy bread grains and raw materials. They soon came to be viewed as merchants in all the places of the alpine area.

The exchanging of goods, and particularly the processing of the milk which at the time was already done collectively, meant the introduction of community business practices within the various interested groups. This explains why the co-operative spirit was very much an autocratic ideal, a fundamental feature of the culture of the Walsers. Their characteristically unique German dialect remained until recent times a social element, and this dialect sometimes can be heard today with the inhabitants of certain villages. The Great Walser Way does not correspond exactly to the route followed by those during their migrations, but it connects 150 villages and important hamlets to their history.

H. Georget, Pastor"

(BVM-Biloxi Book 3 p 48 A 274)

This same Delphine Moran was first married to Benjamin Seaman as found in HARCO Probate File No. P-236; at least two (2) children were born of this marriage; and Benjamin and Delphine were divorced May 25, 1859.

Further, it is believed that Christopher L. Quave died during the 1860s and it is reported that he was killed during the War Between the States; and Delphine Moran married for a third time to Auguste Neuman (Newman) native of Germany (HARCO MB 6 p 212 5/22/1872) and BVM-Biloxi MB III p 50 A 287.

CHRISTOPHER L. QUAVE was at one time the Sheriff of Harrison County, Mississippi and was also appointed as Deputy Marshall to make the return of the 1860 HARCO Census. I all fairness, I will not give you my comments as to the accuracy and correctness of this 1860 HARCO Census record.

1GJ3. MARIE "MARY" QUAVE married 1BA4. JOHN MALLET (MALLEY) and they are found in the 1850 JAXCO census with 2 children and in the 1860 HARCO census with their children.

In the 1850 JAXCO census she is shown as age 18 or born in 1832 and in the 1860 HARCO census she is listed as age 30 years. I have not located this family in subsequent census records, but the subsequent baptism and marriage records of their children indicate that they moved back to the Kiln area of HANCO. The marriage record of John and Mary is recorded in HARCO MB 1 p 132 dated October 1, 1846.

- 1GJ4. URSIN "URSANT" "LAZ" QUAVE, as reported by Mrs. Ladnier, was born February 2, 1835 and married in 1856 to MAMIE SARAH DAVIS. He was baptised March 9, 1835 (SLC BB 14 p 318 A 1169). The JAXCO 1850 census has his age as 15 or born 1835. He and his family also appear in the 1860 JAXCO census, he age 24 and Sarah, his wife, as age 22 years.
- 1GJ5. LOUISE QUAVE, reported by Mrs. Ladnier, born April 10, 1838 was married to VINCENT PETER MALLETTE (BVM-Biloxi MB 2 p 5 A 20). Her baptism record states she was born April 10, 1837 and baptised July 3, 1837 (SLC BB 15 p 317 A 845). She second married MAXIMILIAN GOLLOTT.
- 1GJ6. ZOE QUAVE, reported by Mrs. Ladnier, was born March 18, 1841, died Oct.

 7, 1910 and married JULES GARLOTT. Her baptism record (BVM-Biloxi MB 1 p 3 A 14) states that she was born March 18, 1841 and baptised

 July 7, 1842. Other records do state that she died on May 5, 1912.

- HARCO MB 3 at page 171 states that Jules B. Garllott and Zoe Quave were married on November 9, 1856. The JAXCO 1850 census records Zoe Coueve, age 9 years or born 1841.
- 1GJ7. FRANCOISE EMILIE "MIMI" QUAVE, as reported by Mrs. Ladnier, was born March 9, 1843 and her baptism record at BVM-Nativity, Book 1 (1842-1846) p 9 A 44 states "FRANCOISE EMILIE QUAVE, born March 19, 1843 baptised June 21, 1843". The 1850 JAXCO census record "Emily Coueve, age 7 years or born 1843. BVM-Nativity, Biloxi, Book 2 (1850-1892) p 104 A 816 records the marriage of IVE GAREC and FRANCOISE E. COUEVE. HARCO MB 4, page 30, states "YVON GAREC and EMILY T. QUAVE were married October 11, 1859.

- 1GJ8. CAROLINE LOUISE QUAVE, as reported by Mrs. Ladnier, was born March 30, 1845 and her baptism record at BVM-Nativity (Book 1 (1842-1846) p 19 A 92) states that she was born March 30, 1845 and baptised August 18, 1845. The 1850 JAXCO census lists CAROLINE COUEVE, age 5 years or born 1845. While I have never found a marriage record, family descendants state to me that she was married in 1866 at Ocean Springs, Miss. to SHERROD SEYMOUR, son of Pierre St. Cyr Seymour and Louise Fournier.
- 1GJ9. JUAN "JOHN" WARNE QUAVE, as reported by Mrs. Ladnier, was born April 22, 1847. The 1850 JAXCO census lists him as age 2 years or born 1848 and in the 1860 JAXCO census he is listed as age 13 years or born 1847. I have not found a marriage record for him, but he was 1st married c 1865 to VICTORIA GOLLOTT, widow of Johnathan Miller. This family then moved to Abita Springs, La. and after her death, he was second married to LORENA LAVINGHOUSE, the daughter of Silas Lavinghouse. Lorena Lavinghouse had been first married to Wesley Penton. From this second marriage there were eight (8) children born and reared at Abita Springs, St. Tammany Parish, Louisiana.
 - 1GJ10. CELESTINE QUAVE, as reported by Mrs. Ladnier, was born November 26th,

 1849 and was a twin to Clementine Quave. The 1850 JAXCO census lists a Celestine Coueve in the household of Pierre Coueve, age 10/12 years, or born 1849. Although I have not found a marriage record, she married c 1870 FRANCOIS FOURNIER. Many of their children were baptised at St. Paul-Pass Christian, Mississippi.

From a study of the census records together with the marriage of 1GK3. Valery Ladner to Roselia Niolet, see immediately above, I believe that this was a second marriage for ANDRE NIOLET to Mary Dezida "Marie" Ladner. I say this in view of the 1880 HARCO census for Beat 3, Harrison County, Mississippi, Pages 47 C-396 and 48 D-396, dated June 21, 1880.

Page 47 lists Andre Niolet, Jr. and his family and states that his father was born in France and his mother in Mississippi. He is shown as age 29, born 1851. Page 48 then lists Andre Niolet, Sr., age 67, born in France as was his father and mother. He is shown in this 1880 census as age 67 or born 1813. His wife is named as "Marie" age 38 years or born 1842, together with their children, the oldest child, Remy Niolet as age 11 years or born 1869. These circumstances together with their marriage record in 1868 are more than just coincidence in my mind.

The 1850 HANCO census lists household 404/414 as "Andelio Niolet, age 32 years and born in France. I believe this is the same person as our Andre Niolet, Sr., Page 48 of the HARCO 1880 census, age 67 and born in France. His wife is listed, in the HANCO 1850 census as "Eumet" age 28 or born 1822 which I believe is really the "Antoinette Ladner" mentioned as the wife of Andre Niolet and the mother of Roselia Niolet who married 1GK3. Valery Ladner - see immediately above. Roselia Niolet is listed in the same household age 6 years in 1850 or born 1844. This family of Andelio Niolet and his wife, "Eumet" are living next door to household 405/415 ANTOINE LADNER who is also shown as age 28 or born 1822.

On page 76 herein Antoine Ladner is listed as 1GB4. Antoine Ladner, the son of Basile Ladner and Helene Morin. On page 77 herein, I have listed as 1GB7. MARIE LADNER, the daughter of Basile Ladner and Helene Morin and I did state that I could not positively identify her husband, and I still cannot make a positive identification, but yet I feel that she was actually MARIE ANTOINETTE LADNER and the first wife of Andre Niolet, Sr. and possibly a twin to Antoine Ladner as they both are shown as born 1822. In the marriage of 1GK3. Valery Ladner and Rosalia Niolet a degree of kinship of 2° consanguinity or 1st cousins is shown. Valery Ladner's father Ursin Ladner, Sr. and Basile Ladner, the father of Marie or Marie Antoinette Ladner, were brothers!

While I still cannot prove that Roselia Niolet's mother, Antoinette Ladner, is really IGB7. Marie Ladner, these facts certainly must be considered.

1GF3. CELESTIN LADNER married WIDOW ANN KING

Other than the baptism records of the children of this couple, I have very little information on this family. I have searched for a record of the first marriage of the Widow Ann King in an attempt to determine her parents, but have not found such a record. However, in the baptism of their last child in 1876, she is identified in that record as ANN BROUER.

In the 1880 HARCO census, 1GF3. Celestin Ladner is found living at East Mississippi City, household 206/206, and identified as "Celestine Ladimer", then a widower, with his children. Living with him at that date is his mother, Bridget Cuevas Ladner, age 80. In the same neighborhood is Remi Ladner, Salathiel Smith, Jr., and Phrasine Talbot, his brother and sister and cousin. We can say that, Ann Brouer, widow King is deceased by 1880 and from Cause 432 cited above, we also know that Bridget Cuevas Ladner and 1GF3. Celestin Ladner are deceased by 1891. The Heirs of 1GF3. Celestin Ladner were:

- 1GF3A. LOUIS LADNER was born April 20, 1867 and baptised Dec. 27, 1871 (BVM Nativity-Biloxi BB 2 (1850-1892) p 82 A 637). Godfather was Lovance Smith and Godmother was Bridget Smith. He signed for and received a 1/5 of a 1/6 share ($35.74) in Cause 432 cited above. I have no further information on this person.
- 1GF3B. CALVIN "EUGENE" LADNER was born Aug. 3, 1869 and baptised Dec. 27,

 1871 (BVM Nativity-Biloxi BB 2 (1850-1892) p 83 A 639). His Godfather was Jean Baptiste Dubuisson and Godmother Marguerite Maurison. He signed for and received a 1/5 of a 1/6 share ($35.74) in cause 432 cited above. I have no further information on him.
- 1GF3C. CELESTIN LADNER, JR. appears in the 1880 HARCO census, age 8, born 1872. He is incorrectly named in this census as a female. He was born June 24, 1871 and baptised Dec. 27, 1871 (BVM Nativity-Biloxi BB 2 (1850-1892) p 83 A 640). His Godfather was Salathiel Smith and Godmother Clementine Ladner, wife of Salathiel Smith and Aunt of the child baptised. I have no further information on him.
- 1GF3D. MARY CELESTE LADNER appears in the 1880 HARCO census as "Sylis", age
 7, born 1873. She was born April 30, 1873 and baptised April 21, 1874 (BVM Nativity-Biloxi BB 2 (1850-1892) p 88 A 686). I have no further information on her.

1GF3E. ADELINE MARIE LADNER appears in the 1880 HARCO census, age 5, born 1875. She was born July 27, 1875 and baptised Sept. 18, 1876 (St. Paul-Pass Christian BB "A" p 108 A 750).

These three last named children were named as "minors" in Cause 432 and their individual shares of $35.74 were signed for and received on their behalf by their brother, 1GF3A. Louis Ladner. Perhaps some of their descendants of this family will complete this line at some future date.

1GF4. CHARLES (CARLOS LOVINSKY) LADNER

In Cause 432 cited at the beginning of this lineage and in the Will of Jean Baptiste Ladner, III, he is named as a living child on July 27, 1851, the date of the Will. However, I believe that he died that year and this record is:

CHARLES LORAKE LADNER died 9/1/1851 (St. Paul-PC Bk. A p 1 A 1)

Cause 432 also state that he died leaving no heirs.

1GF5. EUPHROSINE "PHROSINE" "FRAZINE" LADNER 1st married A. G. TALBOT

1GF5A. CORINNE "ERMINE" TALBOT appears in the 1850 HARCO census, age 5, born 1845. I have never found a marriage record for her, but she appears in the 1860 HARCO census as "Ermine", wife of JOSEPH VULLER, age 30, gardener, born in France. He is JOSEPH VALLET, born 1830 and died c 1869 and my reasoning will be explained below. In the 1870 HARCO census, she appears as a widow with 2 children - Arelia, age 5, born 1865 and Johanne, age 2, born 1868. 1GF5A. Corinne Talbot was deceased before 1880.

AURELIE VALET, born 5/31/1861 baptised Sept. 9, 1861, daughter of Joseph Valet and Corinne Talbot. (St. Paul-PC BB A p 46 A 330) COLLINS PHELPS married 1/11/1879 AURELIA M. VALLETT (HARCO MB 7 page 56)

I have not found a baptism record for JOHANNA VALET. However, in Probate Cause No. 317 (HARCO 1879) William B. Murphy (see 1GF5C. LOUISE TALBOT) filed his Petition to be named as Guardian of Johanna Valet and stated that both parents were then deceased. We know that Johanna was born c 1868 and I therefore have assigned c 1869 as the date of death for her father, Joseph Valet and that her mother 1GF5A. CORINNE TALBOT died before 1879, as she appears in the 1870 HARCO census, and then c 1878 would be a better date.

marriage and family, but I have not been privileged to see and examine these records so I have no further information on them.

1GJ5E. "CLEMENT" ARMAND MALLETTE was born March 14, 1860 and baptised September 6, 1860 (BVM-Nativity Bk. 3 p 3 A 7). His marriage is:

JAXCO MB 2 p 46 "C. J. MALLET married 4/18/1879 A. GARLOTT"

There is a second entry correcting details on this marriage which reads: JAXCO MB 2 p 77 "CLEMENT MALLETT married ARMINE GARLOTT"

Family relatives report that in his first marriage with Armine "Amelia" Garlotte, daughter of Jules Garlott and 1GJ6. Zoe Quave, that seven children were born to them; that he remarried CORA CARTER and I have no report of any children born to that second marriage.

1GJ5F. "GEORGE" LUMAS MALLETTE was born January 7, 1862 and baptised December 15, 1863 (BVM-Nativity Bk. 2 p 39 A 281). His marriage is:

JAXCO MB 1 p 342 "GEORGE L. MALLEY married 10/20/1881 CINTHIA ANN GILL"

The Gill and Mallette family records state that she was CYNTHIA ANN GILL, daughter of Henry Gill and Martha Louise Whitehead and that they had ten children born to this marriage. I have no further information.

1GJ5G. HENRY MALLETTE was born April 15, 1863 and baptised December 15, 1863

(BVM-Nativity Bk. 2 p 39 A 280). Gill and Mallette family records state that he married March 29, 1889 to ALICE DUPRE. I have no further information on this family.

As I have previously stated, VINCENT PETER MALLETTE died sometime between the birth of this last child and 1870. This is a fact, because 1GJ5. LOUISE QUAVE was married a second time. The information that I have was given to me by Mrs. Mary Louise Adkinson, a Gollott family descendant and who has and does maintain a very accurate and complete record on the family.

1GJ5. LOUISE QUAVE 2nd married MAXIMILIAN GOLLOTT

The following information regarding Maximilian Gollott was extracted directly from the aforemention MCHGS article by Mrs. Adkinson entitled Another Gulf Coast Heritage - The Grelots

"Maximillian married Polite Demouy on 17 June 1851. He served in the Civil War as a Private in the United Rangers, Company I, 21st Alabama Regulars. In 1916 when he was interviewed for his pension, he was blind. When questioned as to what he was doing the day the War ended, Maximillian replied that he was on a detail catching fish. Maximillian and Polite were the parents of five children: Polite (Uran), Isabel (Bama), Albert, Louis, Maximillian II (Thomas).

(430)

His wife died and he then married Louise Quave Mallette. To this union were born Leonard and Caroline. Maximillian and his family lived for some time in Mobile County (Alabama); however they resided in Jackson County, Mississippi for many years until his death in 1922, being buried in Antioch Cemetery, Jackson, County."

(emphasis added)

I have never found a marriage record for this couple, but I have located the baptism records for three of their children, as follows, and I do not have any further information for these three children.

- 1GJ5H. NARCISSE LEONARD GOLLOTT, born Nov. 29, 1872, was baptised April 26, 1873 (St. Alphonsus-Ocean Springs Bk. A p 10 A 75).
- 1GJ51. CAROLINE OLIVIA GOLLOTT, born June 13, 1875, was baptised September 20, 1876 (St. Alphonsus-Ocean Springs Bk. A p 19 A 143).

1GJ6. ZOE QUAVE married JULES GARLOTT

The following cite is a direct excerpt from Another Gulf Coast Heritage
- The Grelots by Mrs. Mary Louise Adkinson.

"On 9 November 1856, Jules Grelot married Zoe Quave (Cuevas), daughter of Pierre Cuevas and Marie Louise Ladner. Zoe, whose paternal grandparents were Juan de Cuevas and Marie Helene Ladner, was born 8 March 1841 and baptised 7 July 1842. Jules and Zoe's children were: Casmer, Benjamin, Victor Jules, Raymond, Albert, Peter, Armond, Mary Gertrude, Luvenia, Armenia, Lillie Emma, and my grandfather, Napoleon. The family lived in the Fort Bayou Community in Jackson County, Mississippi for many years, according to the recollections of Mrs. Ophelia Martin, granddaughter of Jules. Both Jules and Zoe are buried in the Antioch Cemetery in the same Community. Jules died 7 October 1910; Zoe died in May 1912."

1GJ6A. EUGENE "CASIMIR" GOLLOTT, born August 31, 1858, was baptised June 3, 1859 (BVM-Biloxi Pk. 2 p 11 A 56). Family descendants state that he married c 1880 to PAULINE GOLLOTT, and I have never found a record of this marriage.

PAULINE GOLLOTT was the daughter of Benjamin Gollott, brother of Jules Gollott, and Josephine Basque, daughter of Joseph Basque and Henrietta Pauline Cuevas (Juan de Cuevas and Marie Helene Ladner). They were double cousins on both the Gollott side and on the Cuevas side.

1GJ6B. BENJAMIN JOSEPH GOLLOTT was born March 26, 1860, baptised September 6, 1860 (BVM-Nativity Bk. 3 p 3 A 8) and died in 1930.

His baptism at BVM-Biloxi states simply "a child" and without a given

DEAR DORIE,

I MEANT TO GET BACK IN TOUCH WITH YOU AND ALSO TALK TO GAYE PLUS SEND MATERIAL TO LUTHER AND EASTER. THIS HAS BEEN A HETIC SUMMER FOR US. FIRST OUR MOTHER DIED SHE WAS EIGHTY NINE YEARS OLD, BUT I SUPPOSE ONE IS NEVER PREPARED TO LOOSE THEIR MOTHER. I KNOW YOU LOOSEING YOURS NOT LONG AGO KNOW JUST HOW I FEEL. MAMA WAS A SPECIAL PERSON AND RULED US WITH AN IRON HAND. SHE RAISED US FROM THE OLD SCHOOL. JULY THE SECOND SHE DIED, WE CALLED JUANITA AND SHE FLEW RIGHT HOME. SHE WAS ABLE TO BE HERE N ONLY TEN DAYS. THEN SHE HAD TO BE BACK IN ENGLAND FOR BUSSINESS. WE HAD A FULL TEN DAYS. WE TRIED TO CRAM ALL WE COULD IN. AND VERY WELL DID. WE TOOK OFF THE FOLLOWING FRIDAY TO MOBILE. WE WENT TO VINGER BEND, WHERE OUR FATHER AND HIS FAMILY WAS BORN AND RAISED. WE VISITED CITRONELLE, FRUITDALE, STATELINE, ERETT, WOULARD'S BEND(BUT WE DIDN'T KNOW WE WERE IN WOULARD'S BEND UNTILL I CAME BACK AND CALLED THE NICE LADY YOU TOLD ME TO CALL I CAN'T THINK OF HER NAME WITHOUT MY NOTES. I ALSO PROMISED HER TO SEND HER SOME OF MY MATERIAL. ALSO. TO SEND HER SOME OF MY MATERIAL, ALSO.

THE REASON I AM SO BEHIND NOT ONLY MAMA'S DEATH(DEAR GOD, THAT'S HARD TO TYPE) I HAVE BEEN IN THE HOSPITAL SEVERAL TIMES WITH MY HEART. I 'VE HAD FOUR HEART CATHS. IN THE LAST SEVERAL MONTHS. THEY HAVE BALLOONED FIVE OF MY ARTERIES, THE CHECKED AND MY TRIPPLE BY PASSED SURGERY AFTER MY MASIVE HEART ATTACK WERE ALL OPEN AND THE HEART DOCTOR SAID I SHOULD NOT HAVE BEEN HAVEING PROBLES WITH MY CHEST. BUT I WAS AND EACH TIME I HAS A STRESS TEST IT WOULD SHOW UP. ANYWAY, TURNS OUT LAST WEEK HE SENT ME FOR A GALL BLADDER ULTRA SOUND TEST. I KNEW I HAD THE GRAVEL BUT NOT THEY HAVE TURNED TO STONES. WE ARE HOPEING AND PRAYING THAT THIS HAS BEEN MOST OF MY PROBLEMS. THEY SAY GALL STONES CAN MAKE YOU FEEL LIKE YOU ARE HAVEING A HEART ATTACK..... I GO SEPTEMBER 25TH, TO HAVE THE SOMETHING.....WHERE THEY PUT THE FOUR DOTS AND PULL IT OUT WITHOUT CUTTING YOU OPEN. CAN YOU BELIVE I WILL BE IN THE HOSPITAL ONLY TWENTY THREE HOURS. I KNOW MY INSURANCE COMPANY WILL BE HAPPY WITH THIS. BLESS THEM.

MY DADDY'S FOLKS WERE BORN AND RAISED AROUND ESCATAWPA, ALA. RIGHT NEXT TO VINEGAR BEND, ESCATAWPA WAS THERE FIRST. THAT IS WHERE UNITY WOULARD'S SISTER LIVED, WHICH UNITY AND HER SISTER CHARITY WAS MY GREAT GREAT GRANDMOTHERS. THEY WERE SISTERS AND THEIR GRANDCHILDREN MARRIED. BUT, REALLY DORIE, THAT IS ALL JUST ONE BIG LITTLE PLACE.....IT ALL RUNS TOGETHER. YOU JUST GET ON HIGHWAY 45 AND EACH TOWN YOU TURN RIGHT OR LEFT. WE LEFT

VINEGAR BEND, TOOK A LFET AND A FEW MILES DOWN THE ROAD WAS FRUITDALE, THEN TIBBIE, FOUR POINTS....THEN THERE IT WAS STATELINE AND WAYNESBORO, GREEN COUNTY. ALL THE NAMES I HAD SEEN CONNECTED WITH OUR GREAT GREAT GRANDFATHER BENJAMIN F. WOULARD. THE DEEDS OF WHERE HE HAD BOUGHT LAND. THERE WE WERE JUANITA AND I IN THE LAND WHERE AND ON THE ROADS WHERE BENJAMIN F. WOULARD HAD WALKED, TALKED AND HAD FRIENDS... CLOSE FRIENDS AND LITTLE CLOSE FRIENDS...IT ONLY WE COULD HAVE TUNED IN TO THE AIR AROUND US SOMEWHERE WAS HIS VOICE. WE STOOD AND WALKED PLACES HE JUST HAD TO WALKED. HIS VOICE WAS IN THE AIR JUST OVER OUR HEADS. THE ANSWERS TO ALL OUR QUESTIONS WERE THERE JUST BEFORE US IN TIME. AS WE CAME BACK WE FOUND THE SIGN ERETT. JUANITA AND I WERE SO EXCITED. WE THOUGHT OF YOU ALL THIS IS WHERE IT ALL HAPPENED. YOU KNOW, DORIE, GREAT GREAT GRANDFATHER MUST HAVE LOVED BOTH OF OUR GREAT GREAT GRAND-MOTHERS, FOR HE NEVER LEFT UNITY FOR ANYONE ELSE IF HE DIDN'T LOVE HER AND HE DID NOT FORSAKE MARY, AT FIRST I DIDN'T UNDER-STAND HOW HE COULD HAVE BEEN SO SELFISH AND THOUGHT ONLY OF HIS ON NEEDS. I NOW THINK HE LOVED BOTH OF THEM. ONE DAY WE WILL HAVE TO GET TOGETHER AND SIT AND TALK ABOUT WHAT HIS ACTIONS MEANT TO US, I ALSO WOULD LIKE TO TALK THEIR AGES, IF MARY CAME WITHE THEM FROM (WOULARDS) NORTH CAROLINA. ONCE WHILE I WAS CHECKING THE DATED IT SEEMS LIKE MARY WAS LATE IN STARTING A FAMILY OR DID THE 1808 MARY COME FROM N. C. TO MISSISSIPPI WITH THE WOULARDS AND HAD A DAUGHTER NAMED MARY AND GREAT GREAT GRANDPAPA FELL IN LOVE WITH HER. MAYBE YOU CAN TRY AND GET LUTHER TO TELL YOU AS MUCH AS HE KNOWS, FROM WHAT I COULD TELL LUTHER LOVES TO TALK JUST ABOUT AS MUCH AS I DO. HE HAS ALOT LOCKED IN HIS HEAD THAT HE HAS HEARD JERRY PRINCE TALK ABOUT. IF YOU WILL WORK ON THAT SIDE I WILL WORK ON THIS SIDE AND SEE IF I CAN FIND OUT ANYTHING ABOUT MARY. I HAVE CHECKED THE CENSUS ON BENJAMINE AND SIMEON AND WHAT LOOKS LIKE SIMEON'S FATHER COULD BE NAMED BENJAMINE ALSO. THE MOVE AND STAY TOGETHER . WHEN ONE MOVE THE OTHER ONE MOVES ALSO AND THEY MOVE TO THE SAME TOWN. BENJAMIN'S BRO-CAPT. JOHN WOULARD STAYED IN AND AROUND WASHINGTON COUNTY, ALA. WHICH IS RIGHT NEXT TO GREENE COUNTY MISSISS-IPPI. CAPT. WOULARD SHOWED UP IN ST. STEPHEN ON THE COURT RECORDS &CIRCUIT) ALONG WITH BENJAMINE, I DON'T KNOW IF THIS WAS THE FATHER BEN OR HIS BROTHER (OUR BEN) BENJAMINE, 2150 SIMEON WAS THERE IN ST. STEPHENS, ALA. WITH THEM. (SORRY IT IS CAPT. JOHN W. WOULARD) I JUST CHECKED MY WOULARD BOOK. HE MARRIED IN 1835 TOELIZABETH ANN GRIMES SO I SUPPOSE HE WOULD HAVE BEEN JUST THE RIGHT YOUNG AGE TO FIGH T IN THE WAR 1812 SCTDY 1, MA, M MY TYPEWRITER JUST DED. EVERY TIME I CHANGE RIBBONS I CLAMP IT ON WRONG. SORRY ABOUT THE SECOND PAGE, IT'S UPSIDE DOWN. EVERY TIME I GET DEEP INTO A SUBJECT MY CARLTON CALLS ME. HE HAS MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS AND WHEN EVER THE NURSE STEPS OUT HE CALLS ME EVERY SECOND PLUS THE FACT I CAN't TYPE WORTH A FLIP.

NOW BACK TO CAPT. JOHN W. WOULARD OF ST. STEPHENS, ALA. HE COULD HAVE FOUGHT IN THE WAR OF 1812. NOW WE KNOW MY GREAT GREAT UNCLE, I GRUESS HE WOULD HAVE BEEN YOUR GREAT GREAT UNCLE HALF.. ALSO. SINCE HE WOULD HAVE BEEN MY GREAT GRANDMOTHER'S BROTHER AND THE FIRST JERRY WOULARD'S HALF BROTHER. HE FOUGHT IN THE CIVIL WAR. WITH THE F REGT. AND 36 COMPANY ALABAMA. THERE IS A MARKER IN THE CEMETERY AT STATELINE BEHIND THE GAS STATION THAT SITS ON THE CORNER. WE BELIVE HE IS BURIED IN MT. NEBO CEMETERY IN CITRONELLE, ALA. WE WERE BY THERE IN JULY BUT ALL THE , WELL MORE THAN HALF WERE WHITE WASHED. I HAVE TWO PEOPLE TRYING TO FIND A LIST OF THE PEOPLE WHO ARE BURIED THERE. MAYBE HIS NAME WILL BE ON THE LIST. YOU KNOW, THIS IS THE SAME UNCLE OF OURS THAT WAS IN THE JAMES COPELAND (OUTLAW) BOOK. AND REMEMBER IN WAS IN ESCATAWPA, ALA. JUST WHERE ALL HIS OTHER RELATIVES THE BAXTERS WERE LIVING, HIS MOTHER UNITY'S SISTER, MY OTHER GREAT GREAT GRANDMOTHER WAS CHARITY BAXTER. IT WAS ESCATAWPA THAT BEN-JAMINE WAS APPOINTED DETECTIVE WOULARD.

I'LL HAVE TO SHARE THIS WITH YOU, I THINK IT IS SO SWEET AND IT WILL HAVE A SPECIAL MEANING FOR YOU AND I. AUNT LOUISE AND I WISH YOU COULD MEET HER SHE IS LAST OF BENJAMIN F. WOULARD'S GREAT GRANDCHILDREN(WHITE) THAT I KNOW OF. I JUST WENT TO HER 90th BIRTHDAY PARTY THE MONTH MAMA DIED. THEY LIVE IN PANAMA CITY, FLORDIA. SHE TOLD ME.....THAT HER MOTHER MINNIE LEE MASTERS WALDROP, WHO WAS THE DAUGHTER OF MARY ELIZABETH WOULARD, DAUGHTER OF BEN. TOLD HER THAT HER MOTHER ELIZABETH HAD BEEN SICK(THIS IS JERRY WOULARD'S HALF SISTER) AND MINNIE WAS TAKEING CARE OF HER MOTHER.ELIZABETH HAD NOT BEEN FEELING WELL, SHE HAD TERRIBLE HEADACHES THEY SAID SHE HAD A BRAIN TUMOR. ONE DAY WHILE MY GRANDMAW MINNIE WAS CLEANING HOUSE DOWN IN VINEGAR BEND, ALA. SHE HEARD HER MOTHER, ELIZABETH (BESTY) SCREAMING.....IT SCARED HER..... UNTILL SHE RELIZED IT WAS A THRILLING SCREAM AND NOT OF FEAR. GRANDMAW RAN INTO THE KITCHEN AND THERE SHE FOUND HER MOTHER AND A BLACK WOMAN EMBRACED, HUGGING AND KISSING EACH OTHER ON THE CHEEK. THEY DANCED AROUND AND HUGGED SOME MORE. THEY DIDN't KNOW ANYONE ELSE WAS IN THE WORLD BUT THEM. GRANDMAW COULDN't FIGURE WHAT IN THE WORLD WAS GOING ON. SHE KNEW HER MOTHER HAD BEEN SICK, HER HEAD HURTING AND NOT GETTING AROUND WELL AT ALL. THEN ALL OF A SUDDEN HERE HE WAS DANCEING, LAUGHING AND CRYING ALL AT THE SAME TIME. GRANDMAW MINNIE SAID SHE JUST STOOD BACK UNTILL THEY COULD PULL THEMSELVES TOGETHER AND TALK WHERE YOU COULD UNDERSTAND THEM. WHEN ELIZABETH SLOWED DOWN TO TAKE A BREATH, GREAT GRANDMOTHER ELIZABETH WOULARD TURNED AROUND AND TOLD GRANDMAW MINNIE, THAT THIS WAS HER CHILDHOOD FRIEND WHO SHE HAD GROWN UP WITH. THE BLACK LADY TOLD HER (GRANDMAW) THAT SHE HAD HEARD THAT BESTY WAS SICK AND CAME TO TAKE CARE OF HER AS NO ONE ELSE COULD BECAUSE NO ONE ELSE LOVED HER AS SHE DID. ELIZABETH TOLD THE STORY: WHEN SHE WAS LITTLE HER DADDY (BEN-JAMIN F. WOULARD) BOUGHT HER AND BOUGHT HER HOME TO LIVE WITH HER TO PLAY WATCH OVER HER AND DO EVERY THING BESTY DID. THEY SHARED EVERYTHING. THEY SLEPT IN THE SAME ROOM ATE TOGETHER AND SHARED SECRETS. THEY WERE TOGETHER UNTILL BESTY MARRIED. THE TIME JUST GOT AWAY AND THE WENT THEIR SEPERATE WAYS. BUT SHE WAS BACK NOW TO WATCH OVER AND BE WITH HER BESTY UNTILL SHE DIES AND SHE WAS NOW THAT I KNOW BENJAMIN HAD ANOTHER FAMILY , DOWN IN WOULARD'S BEND , I WONDER IF ELIZABETH'S FRIEND COULD REALLY BEEN ONE OF HER HALF SISTERS AND THIS WAS A WAY FOR BENJAMIN TO BRING ONE OF HIS OTHER DAUGHTERS INTO HIM HOME WITHOUT UNITY KNOWING WHO SHE WAS. AUNT LOUISE SAID, GRANDMAW MINNIE TOLD HER THAT THE BLACKS IN HIS HOME WAS ALL TREATED AS FAMILY. THERE WAS ONE BLACK MAN CALL PRINCE. GRANDMAW SAID HER MOTHER, ELIZABETH CALLED HIM UNCLE PRINCE.....AND NO ONE IN THE COUNTY COULD HAVE A BAR-B-QUE WITH OUT UNCLE PRINCE BEING THERE AND COOKING IT. HIS WIFE WAS CALLED AUNT LANEY. MAYBE BEN DID THE BEST HE COULD.....LEADING TWO LIVES AND SEEING SOME OF HIS OWN CHILDREN GOING WITHOUT. WHO KNOWS WHAT WAS GOING ON IN HIS MIND. IT DOESN'T SOUND LIKE IT WAS A HIT AND RUN LOVE AFFAIR. I'LL LET YOU KNOW IF I HEAR MORE STORIES. YOU LET ME KNOW, NO MATTER HOW SMALL THEY ARE, LATTER ON I MAY CAN MATCH THEM UP WITH SOMETHING I HEAR. IT HAS TAKEN ME ALMOST TWO YEARS PUT THE NAMES AND STORIES TOGETHER.

I AM GOING TO TRY TO GET EASTER, LUTHER AND WHAT WAS THE LADY'S NAME DOWN IN WAYNESBORO.....I HAVE JUST GOT TO CALL AND WRITE HER. I WANT TO SEE HER THE NEXT TIME I GO DOWN. SHE SAID SHE WOULD LOVE TO GO WITH ME TO ERETT AND ALSO SHOW ME WOULARD'S BEND AND INTRODUCE ME TO THE WOULARDS THAT ARE STILL THERE.

DORIE, I COULD TALK ON AND ON.....BUT THE NURSE JUST LEFT.. AND I HAVE TO GO AND TAKE CARE OF MY CARLTON.

OH, YEAH, WITH ALL MY ILLNESS, GALLSTONES, HEART.....OTHER THAN THAT I AM HEALTHY I AM FIFTY SEVEN AND GO LIKE THERE IS NO TOMORROW.

PRAY FOR ME AND I WILL PRAY FOR YOU AND YOURS.

LOVE YOUR COUSIN,

Hey, Doug ~ I have a copy of Regina's column and I'll scan it in, but I have trouble scannin text and making it readable/printable unless I leave it in the unedited form. I'll go ahead and attach it and if you can work with it, maybe you can do better with it.

And tell her that Pier Bang and Martha Loper Bang, are buried in Beulah cemetery and have wooden markers according to the cemetery book.

If she has not already talked with Randall Ladnier or Elaine Parker, then I might be able to help with the early Bangs.

As for the journals and cemetery book referred to in that article, the old cemetery books are out of print, and of course the new one is not out yet. If she'll write the Pas. genealogy library, they'll do lookups for her from the computer. I think the back issues of the journal sold for $5.00, if we have them. I don't know if they're on Else's book list or not. See you, Betty

The attachment will be by separate mail.

Genealogy of racially-mixed group being tracked

For generations a group of racially-mixed people in the Vancleave area lived a gray existence. Not regarded as white, nor as black, they lived in isolation. Eventually even a separate school was established to educate their children.

For 40 years, Elaine Parker of Saucier, whose mother was a student at the Live Oak Pond Indian School, has interviewed former students and their descendants to collect information on their heritage. Parker calls herself and others who share a similar background, "lyeska," which means "many bloods."

The Vancleave Indians or Vancleave Creoles, as they are often called, evolved when early European settlers in this area — French, Spanish, Dutch and others — mingled with the Native Americans. In some of the lines, the racial mixture also included African-American blood. Living in remote areas, there was much intermarriage of these few families through the centuries. Some of the predominant family names that exist today are Ely, Bang, Boudreau, Ladnier and Waltman

In the 1800s, some of these people applied for assistance to the Dawes Commission which had been created to identify Americans of Indian blood. However, they were rejected because many of the documents they needed to prove their Indian heritage were destroyed in courthouse fires. Identifying females was also difficult because often the early church records only identified a woman as an Indian or a half-breed, without a name.

By 1917, the school district faced a dilemma in educating the racially-mixed children, who were rejected by the black community and denied admission to the white schools. A separate school was created specifically for these youngsters, which operated until the time of integration.

School records show the children faced many obstacles in their education, ranging from lack of transportation and poverty to malnutrition and disease, Parker said.

Although she has also met threats and obstacles in her genealogical work, Parker is continuing to gather information on various family lines.

"The greatest tribute one can pay to their ancestors is to be proud of who you are," she said. "The greatest gift one can give to their descendants is don't do anything to dishonor them."

She wants anyone with information on the Live Oak Pond people to contact her at 21179 Old Highway 49, Saucier, MS 39574, or call her at (228) 932-4395.

Tribal Conference

A Native American History and Genealogy Conference, focusing on Southern Plains Tribes, will be the weekend of March 12-13 in Lawton, Okla. Sponsors are the Friends of the Oklahoma Historical Society (OHS) Research Division, the Lawton Pubic Library and the Southwestern Oklahoma Historical Society.

The program begins on Friday, March 12, at 7 p.m. at the Museum of the Great Plains when Jim Whitely will show and tell about the museum's Tingley Indian Store, Anadarko, Artifact Collection. Attendees may choose among 17 sessions on Saturday from 8:30-4 p.m. Wallace Coffee, chairman of the Comanche Nation, will be the keynote speaker with opening remarks by Alanzo Chalepah, Apache Tribal chairman.

A main speaker will be Dr. Bill Meadows of Southwest Missouri State University, Springfield, an authority on the "Comanche Code Talkers of World War II" and author of a book on the subject.

Registration, which includes a Native American lunch, is $25 until March 1 and $35 after. To request a brochure and registration form, visit www.cityof.lawton.ok.us/library/conference.h tm, or send a self-addressed stamped envelope to Friends of the OHS Research Division, P.O. Box 18781, Oklahoma City, OK 73154-0781 or the Genealogy Department, Lawton Public Library, 110 S.W. Fourth Street, Lawton, OK 73501.

Jackson County Meeting

The Jackson County Genealogical Society will meet on Saturday at 2 p.m. Since the meeting room at the Pascagoula Public Library is undergoing renovation, the group meets in the home of past president Doug Coulter Sr., 2205 9th St., Pascagoula.

Members will discuss the release of two journals and the cemetery book, which is nearing completion, during the business meeting. The society welcomes articles for its journal.

Coulter's residence may be located by turning east onto Polk Avenue, at the Sonic Drive-In on Market Street. Ninth Street runs off Polk

Anyone interested in genealogy is invited to attend.

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of December 14, 1977 requesting research in our early records and copies of records.

We are pleased to enclose certified photocopies of the following records, as requested by you:

> Baptismal Record: Jean Baptiste Ladner, son of Christian Ladner, baptized Sept. 12, 1724, recorded, page 51, Bapt. Rcds. Book #1.

> Baptismal Record: Marie Jeanne Nicaise, baptized December 25, 1749, recorded, page 176, Bapt. Rcds. Bk. #1.

Our early records have not been translated, but I was fortunate enough to have on hand a translated copy of the baptismal record of Jean Baptiste Letdener (Ladner) which I have attached to the photocopy, as the original record is very faded, therefore the photocopy is almost illegible.

I have also attached a typewritten copy of the baptismal record of Marie Jeanne Nicaise, to the best of my ability to decipher the original, in the hopes it will facilitate reading the photocopy.

Your check in the amount of $16.00, enclosed in your letter, will very adequately cover the fee for this research and copies of records.

If I can be of further service to you, please call on me.

Sincerely, Eide S. Rehm Mrs. T. R. Rehm, Secretary, Archives.

Hello Renee,

I had a very nice time in Pascagoula. You have a great group there. They seem to support one another and get along well. Seems like someone has created a great situation there.

Yes, I would like to provide a program for anyone who is interested in the topic.

Yes, I will pay for Mr. Glaude to be tested. I would pay for the Y-DNA12 test (first twelve markers). He could contribute some of his own money to get a more detailed result like Y-DNA67.

Yes, my wife and I would like to see your place if the opportunity presents itself.

Randall,

It was such an enlightening evening and it has been way too long since I've seen you. Please call me when you and your wife(I've forgotten her name) come to the area because Doug and I would love to host y'all. We live in the International Shipbuilding Worker Historic District house on Yazoo Lake under a huge old live oak. You made the DNA story so interesting and would you consider giving a program for our society on the subject?. We meet the 4th Tuesday of each month at 6p.m. here at the library. Maybe you could do it in connection with a trip home to visit your Mom. We don't have a programming budget, but let me know how much you would charge for that and I can talk to our Board about the possibility. Maybe we could even get the Mississippi Humanities Council to approve you for a speakers stipend. You have which degrees? If we can come up with a good concept, catchy title, etc...

If you are serious about paying for the Glaude DNA, I'd be glad to talk with Eddie Glaude, Sr. about it. Did you check our Eddie Glaude, Jr.? Pretty amazing C.V.

Thanks for sharing so much! You are a jewel in our Gulf Coast colonial history crown!

Hi, Eunice:

"Old Pierre" is Pierre Ladner I, of whom no one has come forward with any definite facts about. His marriage and any births or baptisms are absent from the Catholic Church records that have all of his ancestors and brothers & sister's families in them. He definitely owned land both on the Sound near Ocean Springs and Fontainebleau; also near the mouth of the West branch of the Pascagoula River. The land at Ocean Springs was sold for taxes early; the land at present-day Gautier was passed down through the children of his son Alexis Nicholas Ladnier who also owned land on Bluff Creek, from whom the Boeas descend. I have no document except a lawyer's speculation that old Pierre is the father of Alexis Nicholas; but I do believe that it is so. I believe that, and other Ladner descendants believe, that Old Pierre was married to a woman of colour, probably Indian, unless it would have been a daughter of Glaude, a Spanish-Negro who was prominent in the service of the military here when the English was trying to take this place from the Spanish. I have no proof of either of these speculations, and I believe that both sources are possible. I can send you the lineage of Pierre if you want it. I am reasonably sure that Alexis is his son; Alexis had a son named Pierre. I would gladly listen and accept any proof of any of this lineage, but there seems to be no records. The Bluff Creek area and the Pascagoula River area is notorious for having missing Church records, as missionaries often lost the registers or they didn't reach either Mobile or New Orleans for whatever reason. In the late 1700's, early 1800's baptisms could wind up in either Diocese, but none have been found. What are your ideas on this? Glad to hear from you! Betty --- Original Message

Mrs. Jean Strickland P.O. Box 5147 Moss Point Ms39563

Dear Mrs. Strickland:

I am trying to locate a family with some knowledge about a family Bible I have. In the Bible it states property of George Deason Gains. gives a date of birth for him. It also states G.W. Ryan son of Issac Ryan and wife Margaret. I am trying to make the connection between the two entries. Also I have a copy of the will of Young Gains and it mentions a daughter that married a Lipscomb. She lived in the area of Demopolis Alabama, Mississippi territory.

I was able to get this information from some of your books published on Perry and Greene Co. Ms. If you have any way of knowing how I might contact some of your sources for your books on the Gains and Ryans I would appreciate it very much.

Sincerely,

Danny Ryan

Dear Ms. Strickland,

The information you sent me was invalvable, and very welcome. It provided me with new dates, and an understanding of the family my grandfather came from! of course, as a genealogist, I would love to have more information. A trip to Mississippi is not possible for me this year, or I would visit the library in person. However, if it is not too much trouble, I would love to have more information sent. Your note said that what you sent were a few of the items on Gautier & Pelhan. I would love to have capies of everything in those files it possible. As to the Fayard S, if there are any family group sheets, the families I am interested are:

Ussin Fayard, who married Genevieve Rayenne (parents of Theresa Fayard-Gravtier) and Louis Fayard, who married Martha Gargary (parents of Ussin Fayard).

Any general information on the Fayards would also be helpful-

Enclosed is a donation to your library. I hope that it will be used for the genealogical & historical department. The service provided is so valuable. It was only through a fluke while looking through books on Mississippi here in Scattle's public library that I discovered that Eve Pelham's maiden name was Grautler, and that opened up a whole new chapter in my family tree!

I am in no hurry, but look forward to your response. One last question: The there any books out in your library, biographies, on Fernando Gautier, or the Pelham, and it so, can they be borrowed through inter-library wan?

Yours sincerely,

Tony Consul 14636 NE 38th $ 1040 Bellevue, WA 98007

Dear Mr. Consul:

Thank you for your letter of April 18 and your generous donation to our department. It will be put to good use with the purchase of 2 books for the department.

Enclosed is material on Ursin Fayard and Genevieve Rayenne (who is actually Ryan) and material on Lewis Fayard and Martha Gargare. Also material on the Gautier family. I hope that it is very helpful. There are no group sheets from the file, but you can make your own from the extensive, documented material enclosed.

Brother Jerome Lepre' is a teaching brother at Brother Martin High School in New Orleans. He is a noted genealogist and descends from all the old families here so his work is the very best.

Also enclosed is the obituary of John M. Pelham and a sheet on him from the 1850 Census of Washington County, AL. I do not have more information on the Pelhams.

I hope you enjoy the enclosed. If we can be of further service, please let us know.

Wallace J. Richards Cambridge Village, #5 Gautier, Ms. 39553

Dear Mr. Richards,

Well, I had waited so long to write you that your address had changed. Theresa Holland was kind enough to send it to me, so I will try again.

Theresa tells me you have had surgery due to diatetes. I hope you are doing well and that you will continue to improve. I am curious to know if the diabetes comes from the Ryan branch of the family. My sister (who died two years ago due to breast cancer) at age to had a very brittle case of juvenille diabetes, but it wasn't discovered until she was in her early forties. Several of our cousins also have it, and it is suspected that our grandfather Ryan had it, but it was never diagnosed. Grandfather had two brothers whose children also have carried down in their lines. Therefore, I guess their parents, John Ira Ryan and Mary Ann Otis had to have had it in one of their lines. But farther back than that I do not know. I, myself, am a borderline, and so far one of the lucky ones.

Hoping to hear from you sooner than you heard from me.

Dear Mr. Carvin:

I am enclosing copies of some lineage compilations that I have pulled together over the years. I know that you probably have the great majority of this information, but I guess that you are the same as I and never turn down anything that is genealogical in nature. I have never failed to pick up some clues from anything that, in volume, is sent to me.

One question - in the Ladnier dit Christian line ... did the passenger list on the Marie also list Marie Barbe Counal as accompaning Luis Christian de Ladner and did it show any infants.

My belief is that he had 3 sons older than Jean Bap. that would be Nicholas "Christian"; Louis & Jacques Maturin. It is possible that he married Marie Barbe Counal after he arrived and these 3 were born in NOLa. before he went to Mobile and J B born in 1724.

Also - do you have anything on Marianne St. Martin Patier, wife of Joseph Nicholas Christian Ladnier. It is the general belief here that she was the daughter of St. Martin Patier, an officer with Iberville, and founder of St. Martin Community, North Bay, Biloxi, Miss. Also that there was a Louise Patier that is involved in this lineage.

I hope that my small efforts in the Dubuisson, Lizana and Dedeaux lines enclosed will be of some help to you.

I am also of the opinion that in the Nicaise line that a marriage and generation is also lost. My theory, unproved as yet - Jacques "The Cat" Nicaise and his wife Marie Barbe Boutantin and 3 children arrived Mobile 8-10-1720 L'Elephant-this is proven. It is my belief that one of the 3 children was Jacques Nicaise II -that although listed as "infant" could have been at least 15-18 years old. That it was he who the could have married circal720-25 to a Catherine Du-?--; and that Jean Baptiste Nicaise who married Marie Cath. Miot was their son. I just need the time to search Mobile records.

Dear Ms. Roberts:

Your letter of 6 August 1989 forwared to me from Biloxi was received yesterday at my home address shown above. Your inquiry as to J.B.Favre who first married Mary "Marie" Ladner and John Baptiste Favre who second married Felicite Nicaise are one and the same person. I stated several timesthroughout The Ladner Odyssey that much of the Favre lines were furnished by Jerry Heitzmann of Bay St. Louis from his tentative manuscript The Favre Family. Please be advised that I have just last week completed the compilation of his research and the writing of his narrative The Favre Family History – some 140 pages – which has been accepted, as a free gift, by the MCHGS and they will publish same in the very near future as a Special Edition Issue. Of course, the complete family history of the above mentioned John Baptiste Favre is included therein.

However, for your information, I offer the following:

"John B. (Baptiste) "Noon Noon" Favre, as reported by the December 7, 1845 Sea Coast Echo (Bay St. Louis Newspaper) was born 12/22/1844 in Bay St. Louis, Miss. It further stated that he moved with the family to Waveland when he was 8 years old; that he fought in the War Between the States and died 11/29/1945 and is buried in the Waveland, Miss. Cemetery. Archive records at Jackson, Ms. report that he enlisted 6/29/1861, age 18, at Shieldsborough, Miss. (now Bay St. Louis) and was a member of Co. F, 3rd Miss. Infantry, CSA."

He first married Mary "Marie" Ladner of 12/26/1867 and they had the following children: Leonie "Aglatine" Favre b 11/17/1868 and died age 17 years of lockjaw. Victor Favre b 1872 and he did marry and moved to New Orleans, La. Angeline Favre b 1874 and she married Alcide Ladner of Waveland, Miss. and their children included Ervin, Raymond, Chris, Garfield and others.

She died as stated in The Ladner Odyssey.

He second married Felicite Nicaise and their children were: Sidonia Antonia Favre b 8/1/1887 bp 10/5/1887 married John Mazarakis Alphonse Baptiste Favre b 7/19/1886 bp 11/3/1886 married Edma M. Bourgeois.

The other children of John Baptiste Favre, Sr. and Amelia M. Mathieu were Jules Favre who married Clotilde D. Roth, and they had 8 children and it appears that he had 1 natural child prior to his marriage to Roth; Angelina Favre called "FeFe" married Archie? and moved to Arkansas and had 2 known children; Louise Sidonia Favre b 9/1/1850-no further infor; Mary Louise Favre b 10/3/1852 - no further info; Marie Anastasie Favre b 7/24/1860 - no further info; Lillie Favre married Thomas Bradley Stone of Mobile, Ala. and their children were Jessie, Thomas, Ida and Bradley Stone known of; and William "Billy" Favre believed not married and moved to Crowley, La.

 $\ensuremath{\mathsf{T}}$ regret that your letter was originally missent and the answers above delayed.

Yours very truly,

Dear Ms Ladner:

Thank you so much for your reply to my letter and there is no way I can thank you for all the information you supplied about Benjamin Woulard's second family. We knew nothing about this until a month or six weeks ago.

I writing to let you know the information was received as well as to thank you. And to ask you to be patient with me while I gather together, photocopy and post to you the information I have about our Great Great Grandfather. By sister in America is in the process of having a photograph of Benjamin and his white wife copied for you.

We can fill in a lot of dates for you about him. Also tell you about his white children. We have no information about hary but we are searching now for whatever we can find and of course you will know what we know.

I am sure Benjamin would be very proud of your sister. I certainly am and it's a pleasure to know you.

The photographs were wonderful and I appreciate so much you sharing them with us.

Do you know of a Mrs Gaye Johnson Woulard in Colorado? She is married to a John Woulard. She is a white school teacher and John is Black. I think they must somehow be related to Lon Woulard. I have her address if you would like it. She is researching the Woulards as well. The Black side.

Well, a little information about myself. I am sixty six and have been living in England since 1969. I am semi-retired now. However, I work just as hard as I ever did. When I first came here I worked for a British Company as there National Sales Lanager. England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales and the Channel Island was my patch. Now, I work as an artist and sell my work at Craft Shows throughout the U.K.

again, I ask for your patience and assure you that the woulard information will be forthcoming as soon as possible.

Thanks for taking the time and the effort to send such valuable information. You will be hearing from me again very soon.

Dear Mr. Carvin:

I certainly hate to appear to be presuming upon you, but after a close reading of the genealogies that you sent to me on order, I have a few questions that perhaps you could answer for me, or in the alternative, point me in the right direction.

In regard to the Cuevas lineage from Jean Cuevas the 1st, holder of the original Cat Island, Miss. land grant:

- 1. Who was the wife of Jean Cuevas my records indicate that it was - Marie Louise Christian Ladner daughter of Nicholas Christian Ladner + Marianne St. Martin (Patier)?
- 2. Other records seem to indicate that a Helene Ladner daughter of Nicholas Ladner + a M A Luisan Cade could have been the wife of Jean Cuevas I - can you identify this Helene Ladner?
- 3. There are CONFIRMATION records dated April 21, 1798, Deer Island, that confirm Jean Joseph Cuevas and also confirm Helene Louise Cuevas - these confirmation records show as parents Jean Cuevas + Helene Ladner.

Further, the Confirmation records April 21, 1798 also show a confirmation for a Helene Ladner (Nic L + M A Luisan Cade)?

Further - are these Confirmation records of file in New Orleans or in Mobile? 12 Flage P.167

As to the Ladner lineage charts -

1. Did the passenger list for the MARIE show Luis Christian de Ladner as arriving alone or with his wife, Marie Barbe Counal?

2. If the passenger list showed him as being married and lists his wife - Did it list any children as arriving with them?

3. What was the order of the children of Luis C de L + M B C? that is - my records indicate the order to be 1 to last -

1. Nicholas Christian - Marianne St. Matin

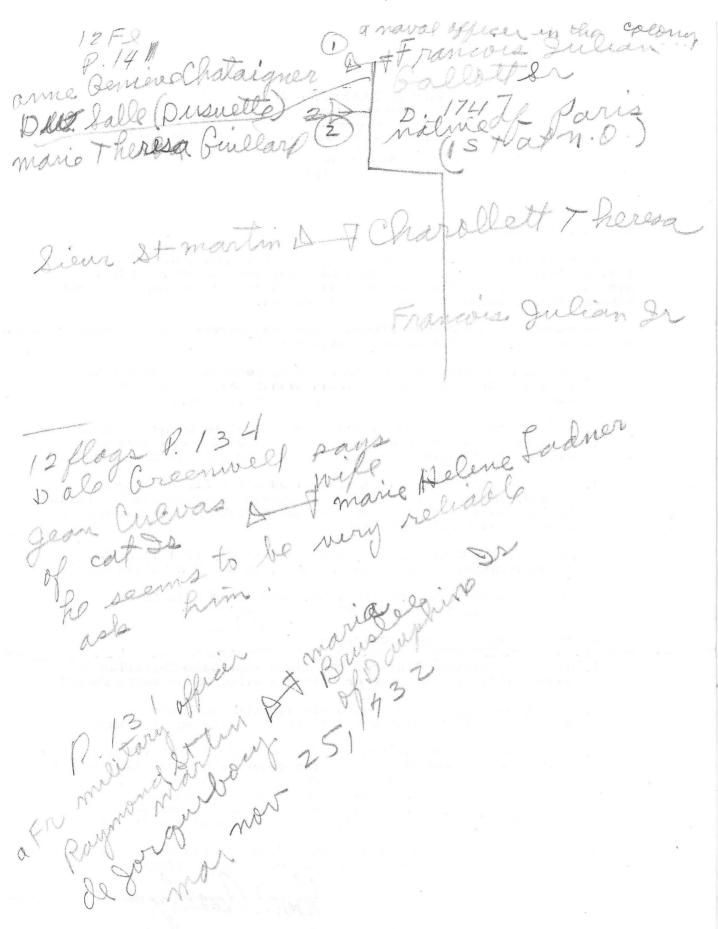

ON P. Cassing a

- 2. Louis (also as never being married)
- 3. Jacques Maturin + Marie Anne Berda
- 4. Jean Baptiste + Marie Louise Fisseau

4. See 2 above - Helene Ladnier b6/24/1792NO(Francois Nic L + Marie Louise Ladnier) can you identify?
